"PROVE ALL THINGS: HOLD FAST THAT WHICH IS GOOD."-1 Taxes, v. 21.

Charlottetown, Prince Edward Island, Saturday, January 5, 1861.

No. 27.

keep up the attention of the people, and prevent listless hearing; and they greatly encourage the preach-er, who learns from the demonstrations of the audience

"The good old rule—the simple plan That they should take Who have the power : And they should keep who can.'

Edward the First, in order to secure his conquest of Wales, built the old Castle, which is the great attraction of the place, though now in ruins. Under the guidance

They are a people alive unto God

From the N. Y. Independent. Thanksgiving Sermon. BY HENRY WARD BESCHER.

the people, to such a remarkable degree, with the leaven of the Gospel.

Caernarvon, on the Menai Straits, is not very much of a place, but it has rather a remarkable history. It is said to be the old Segontium of the Romans;—to have been the hattle-field of this.

Constitutions, Prince Edward Island, Sciurcity, Joseph 1981.

1. The processing of t

where we man me me me need not seek to behalf. In the started of a mixed or mouth in a large of manifest of mouth in the started of the start