

THE WEEK IN NEWCASTLE

Look it Up
Look at the label on your paper, and if you owe us a dollar or more, get in touch with one of the contestants and have the votes placed to her credit.

Optician in Blackville
C. M. Dickson, optician, will be at Dickson & Troy's drug store in Blackville, for one week from August 9th to August 14th, with a full line of eyeglasses. Eyes tested free. 3-2.

Repairing Store
Messrs. Thurber & Crocker, merchants of Millerton, have been making repairs to their store. Besides inside improvements, new steps have been built at the entrance to the store.

Lost Valuable Car
Mr. John Sullivan, of Redbank, met with an unfortunate loss on Saturday night at Whitteville, when in some manner his new Studebaker seven passenger car caught fire and was destroyed.

Engagement Announced
Mr. and Mrs. W. G. Thurber, of Millerton, announce the engagement of their daughter, Miss Marion Jean Thurber, to Mr. Arvid White, of Shediac, N. B., the wedding to take place August 14th.

Hand Amputated
Gordon Turner, who was a member of Major Anderson's 8th Moncton battery, and who left here with the first nine boys who went to the front, has had one of his hands amputated as the result of being wounded. He will be invalided home.

Advertising Exhibition
Mr. Alf. Crosby, of Chatham, was in town last week distributing advertising matter in connection with Chatham's big exhibition to be held in September. Manager Fisher has matters well in hand, and everything points to a successful fair.

Promoted Station Agent
Mr. H. A. Quilty, who for the past thirty odd years has been operator at Newcastle, has been promoted to the position of station agent to fill the vacancy made by the retirement of Mr. W. R. Payne. Mr. Quilty is a capable official and is receiving congratulations from his numerous friends.

Road in Good Shape
The road from Bridgetown to Redbank and through the Southwest to Halcumb is in perfect condition, and reflects great credit on the Commissioners who are in charge of them. The soil is very hard, and after turning, settles down and keeps its shape. From Sunny Corner to Newcastle, on the other side, the road is not quite so good.

New Correspondents
The Advocate is pleased to inform its readers that good reliable correspondents have been secured for Blackville, Redbank, Doaktown, Halcumb, Sillikers and Sunny Corner, and that items received from these districts will be thoroughly reliable. The Advocate will be pleased to add other districts to this list, and make arrangements with any young lady who will call personally at this office.

Wounded in Head
Word has been received by Mrs. Hiram Copp, of Chatham, stating that her husband, who has been fighting with the Fifth Highlanders of Montreal, had been wounded in the head. The telegram did not state whether the wound was serious or not, but if serious, further information would be sent her. Hiram is a Newcastle boy, and his friends and relatives hope his wound is not serious.

The Richest Coon in Georgia
The next attraction at the Newcastle Opera House will be R. N. Thompson's big company of colored entertainers, in the two act musical comedy, "The Richest Coon in Georgia." This attraction played Moncton two nights, Amherst three nights, New Glasgow, Truro, Liverpool and Yarmouth, to large and well pleased houses recently, and give a clean, lively and clever performance. The Black Diamond Band will give free concerts noon and night, and a feature is a fine orchestra which they carry. Usual prices 25, 35 and 50 cents. Secure your seats now at Dickson & Troy's.

Made Good Impression
At the recruiting meeting held in Chatham last Thursday night, the Newcastle band, who had offered their services, and which were cordially accepted by the Town Council, played an exceptionally pleasing program, enjoyed by an immense gathering, who waited until the last note had been sounded, so well were they pleased with the music of our band. After the evening's program had come to a close, Mayor Hickey, in an appropriate speech, thanking the band for services they had rendered, proposed a vote of thanks for the band which was taken up by the citizens in a hearty good manner. The boys are well pleased with the reception accorded them.

Crops Look Good
Crops seen from the train along the Canada Eastern look to be fairly good, especially potatoes.

Preliminary Hearing
The preliminary hearing in the case of Donald Kingston, marine engineer, of Chatham, charged with bigamy, began Thursday morning at Moncton.

Having Fine Time
Mr. M. Schaffer, of Blackville, received word from Private Edward McPhail, who is with the 55th at Valcartier, saying they are all having a fine time.

A German Eagle
The brass eagle from a German helmet, picked up on the battlefield by Sergt. Allen, has been received by his father through the mails. The eagle is a ferocious creature with lion's tail and feet and human hand clutching a sword.—World.

Engagement
Mrs. Minnie R. Loggie, of Chatham, N. B., announces the engagement of her daughter, Helen Murray Loggie, to Robert Paton Donald, manager of the Bank of Montreal, Grand Falls, N. B. The wedding will take place early in September.

M. P. Casualties
The maritime province casualty list of July 29th contains the following names: Lance Corporal Hiram A. Copp, formerly 12th battalion, Chatham, N. B.; Driver Albert Howell, Halifax, N. S.; Harry Edgar Hamilton, St. John, N. B.

Met With Accident
Mrs. E. P. Williston, who has been summering at Bay du Vin, had the misfortune to break her leg last week. Dr. Nicholson was summoned, and the unfortunate lady is doing as well as can be expected, under the trying circumstances.

New Recruits
Messrs. Alex. Stewart, of the Bank of Nova Scotia; Cornelius Doyle and John McKinley, of McKinleyville; Luther Williston, Chatham, have volunteered for active service, the three latter joining the 55th, and Mr. Stewart, the Artillery, St. John.

Rev. Dr. Harrison Ill
Rev. Dr. Harrison's many friends will regret to learn that he is confined to bed through illness. Owing to this the Presbyterian and Methodist churches will worship together next Sunday in the Methodist church in the morning, and the Kirk in the evening.

Denies Authorship
The Advocate wishes to state, for the benefit of its subscribers and readers at Cassilis, that Mr. Walter Simpson came to this office on Tuesday and denied being the author of the notes which appeared in our issue of July 21st. The Advocate is satisfied with Mr. Simpson's explanation, and asks its subscribers to kindly relieve him of all blame that was attached to him.

Mrs. Catherine P. Lloyd
Mr. Thomas Petrie, who has been spending the summer here, received a telegram on Thursday announcing the death of his sister, Mrs. Catherine P. Lloyd, which occurred at South Brewer, Me. The deceased was formerly Miss Catherine Petrie of Tabusintac and is survived by one son Lester, of Bangor, and one daughter, Miss Marie Lloyd, of South Brewer. Mr. George Petrie of Tracadie is a brother. Deceased was 43 years of age and a sufferer from cancer.

Fire at Gremley's Stable
A fire which broke out Monday morning totally destroyed the livery and sales stable of Mr. R. H. Gremley. The fire started in the horse stable, and A. S. Gremley, who was asleep in the front part of the building, awoke to find the place in flames, and by the time the firemen arrived it was seen the building was doomed and they directed their efforts to saving the nearby buildings, some of which were on fire several times. Mr. Gremley saved most of his carriages, but lost two horses and a large part of his harness. The insurance carried was $1,500.

Weddings at Nelson
The marriage of Miss Lillian McKenzie, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Wm. McKenzie, Nelson, to Mr. Frank Richardson, of the same place, was celebrated at the Catholic church, Nelson, on Wednesday last, the Rev. Father Power officiating. The bride was gown in white silk and was supported by Miss Alice Gallant of Rogersville, while Mr. Joseph Richardson was best man. Mr. and Mrs. Richardson will reside in Nelson.

A pretty wedding was solemnized at the Catholic church, Nelson, on Wednesday afternoon last, when Rev. Father Power united in marriage Miss Mary O'Haran of Allen Settlement, and Mr. Everett McEachren of Nelson. The bride was Miss Kate A'Haran and Mr. James McEachren was best man. They will reside in Nelson.

Canadian Foresters Make Donation

Local Court Gives $25.00 to the Machine Gun Fund, and Exempts Volunteers from Dues

A move which might well be followed by other societies in the town was inaugurated on Monday evening, when at a meeting of Court Loyalist No. 824 Canadian Order of Foresters, a motion to donate $25 towards the machine gun fund, was carried unanimously. It was also decided to exempt all members of the Court, who have or will volunteer for active service, from Court dues, during the period of the war. The High Court having already decided to exempt such members from High Court and insurance dues. This action on the part of the local court is a highly commendable one.

Has Accepted Appointment
Lieut. Austin Murray, of Newcastle, has received a telegram from the colonel in command at Seville, Manitoba, asking him if he would accept an appointment in the Fifth Artillery Brigade, now stationed there. Lieut. Murray immediately wired, accepting the appointment.

Mrs. W. R. Fitzmaurice and family are summering at their cottage at Amherst Shore.

Maritime Board Of Trade Meeting

Hon. Mr. Foster to Give Address at Annual Session in Summerside

The annual meeting is to be held at Summerside, P. E. I., Wednesday August 18th. Reduced fares on the certificate plan have been secured and it is hoped that there will be a good attendance.

The Moncton Board's topic for discussion "Preferential Freight rates over the Transcontinental Railway to secure the shipment of the products of the Canadian Northwest through Maritime Province ports during the winter season," is very appropriate in view of the large expenditures being made by the Dominion Government in improving the ports of Saint John and Halifax. Other timely subjects are "Military Training for Home Defence" from the Charlottetown Board; "Petitioning the Dominion Government to overture Newfoundland to enter Confederation on terms mutually satisfactory" proposed by Summerside Board and "Technical Education" from Newcastle Board. Other interesting subjects will be discussed.

Sir George E. Foster, Minister of Trade and Commerce, has accepted an invitation to address the Board.
