A Congressman Nearly Asphyxiated—Trou-ble on the Tariff Reform Question— Preparing the Financial Re-

From our Special Correspondent WASHINGTON, D. C.,

Nov. 20th, 1887. That the Congressmen from the back districts are arriving at the capital is evidenced by the fact that one of these unsophisticated legislators, who is unfamiliar with city ays, when about to retire a night or two since, llew out the gas, and would surely have suffocathotel servants. As this is the honorable hotel servants. As this is the honorable member's first visit to Washington, I may be a first visit to Washington, I may be and accept this intimation.

Smith—In Goderich, on Thursday, Dec. 1st, 1887, Henry Smith, aged 80 years.

The function will take place from his late off Bayfield road. ed but for the vigilance of one of the men, who, by misrepresenting Mr. Randall and himself, have almost disturbed the friendliness of the personal relations that have long existed between these distinguished statesmen. While declining to permit an interview, the Speaker announces that if he should meet the ex Speaker before the as sembling of Congress, that they would be likely to informally discuss the tariff. But I seriously doubt if there is the least prospect of harmonizing the discordant factions of the dominant party on this vital issue, on the eve of a Presidential contest. Mr. Carlisle, while representing the majority of his party, cannot move war. Randall from his strong position, as the bulwar's of the protection element, either by coercion or compromise, nor is it probable that the Speaker will have the courage to displace his troublesome rivai from his old place as Chairman of the committee on the tinances of the empy, as it will be of even more importance to the business men than what im P.es.dent himself says. In order to wholly devote himself to this arduou undertaking, the secretary has retired to the privacy of his home circle, sc as to be free from intrusion. The last report of the secretary of the treais understood, was prepared by Mr Fairchild—though at that time le to office seekers whose appointment he secures—receiving from his victims a certain percentage of their salaries each

The active canvass for the doorkeep ership of the House of Representatives, continues to be the topic of absorbing Interest with our national Solons of the Democratic persuasion, and I rather in-cline to think a new man may be elect-ed, for, as there are one bundred new members, more subordinate places will have to be provided, and the old doorkeeper, having none to spare, will, per-haps, have to make room for a man who can give a new deal.

May do for a stupid boy's excuse; but what can be said for the parent who sees his child languishing daily and fails to recognize the want of a tonic and blood-purifier? Formerly, a course of bitters, or sulphur and molasses, was the rule in well-regulated families; but now all intelligent households keep Ayer's Sarsaparilla, which is at once pleasant to the taste, and the most searching and effective blood medicine ever discovered.

Nathan S. Cleveland, 27 E. Canton st., Boston, writes: "My daughter, now 21 years old, was in perfect health until a year ago when she began to complain of fatigue, headache, debility, dizziness, indigestion, and loss of appetite. I concluded that all her complaints originated in impure blood, and induced her to take Ayer's Sarsaparilla. This medicine soon restored her blood-making organs to healthy action, and in due time reestablished her former health. I, find Ayer's Sarsaparilla a most valuable remedy for the lassitude and debility incident to spring time."
