Lusitania Out of Com- mission Until August.

Suffered $300,000 Damages in Avoiding Collision With Booth Liner in Mersey.

Liverpool, March 24.—The big Cunarder 'Lusitania' in dock undergoing repairs to her turbines, which were seriously damaged when entering the Mersey. On her last trip from New York, the 'Lusitania' had reached the mouth of the river Mersey, on January 2, when she suddenly reversed engines to avoid a collision with a Booth liner. It is supposed the strain in reversing quickly was so great that the blades of four turbines were stripped away. When, after avoiding the Booth liner, she attempted to proceed up the river it was found that the propelling turbines would not work.
In fact, that the vessel was helpless.
Tugs were signalled for and towed her up the river. Passengers were disembarked by tender in mid-river and the vessel was hurried into dock.
The company gave out a statement that owing to slight derangements of the machinery, the vessel would be unable to take her place the following Saturday according to the schedule.
Closer examination revealed that the repairs to be made were very numerous, but then it was announced that the ship would be in dry dock only a few days. Now the extent of the damage is realized in full, and it is believed it will be August before the 'Lusitania' will be able to resume her sallings.

Actual repairs will cost $300,000, while the loss of earnings is estimated at half a million dollars.

Real Noble Prefers Simplicity.

The first mark of a noble soul is an honest love of simplicity. He does not take simple things because he is poor and must, but because he believes he prefers them.

He prefers water to wine, milk to beer, and bread and meat to all connected diches.

Some nobles are rich, but though they might wear purple and fine linen they dress always unobtrusively.

When you see a house loaded with gim-cracks and bric-a-brac, a man living every day in luxury and using for his ordinary comfort things that cost extravagant prices, or when you see a woman who cannot be happy unless her life be full of artificial pleasures, you may know you are looking upon what is cheap and coarse.

If you want to study one of the highest souls America has produced read Thoreau's "Walden."

It is characteristic of nobleness that its desire is to serve, and of the lower order of men and women that they love to be waited on.

The cheap soul wants place, honours, money, power and fame; he does not want to do true work that deserves rewards. The high soul wants only to do the service and share with the public acclaim. The noble's mind is fixed upon the act of risking his life to save his country; the low man's mind is fixed upon the prominence and applause he will gain by risking his life.

The desire to rule is the vice of slaves. The wish to serve is the mark of nobles.—Dr. Frank Crane in Woman's World for April.

Sculptor in Love.

Sweetheart in Plaster.

A student at Caen fell in love with a pretty actress and persuaded her to let him take a plaster cast of her head and shoulders in order that he might perpetuate her beauty in marble.

Having prepared about 20 lb. of plaster, the student applied it, begging the girl to bear bravely the discomforts of the operation. Presently the plaster began to set and the girl found breathing difficult. Feeling faint, she called to her lover to remove the plaster, but it stuck fast.
She shrieked that she was dying, and the young man rushed for a doctor.

On arrival the doctor looked at the girl and then said calmly, "It's not a doctor you want; it's a mason." And a mason it was who, with a hammer, finally removed the plaster.

This incident was the end of the student's romance.

Mr. Nardini.

Returning from Memphis, Tennesssee, where he paid his first visit to his brother in thirty-seven years, Mr. Antoni Nardini, of Nardini's Crossing, Nfld., arrived here last week on his way to his home at the latter place.
While in the Southern city, Mr. Nar-dinie was feted by W. J. Bacon, city judge, and city court clerk, M. Cohen, and several other leading business men of the place. The banquet, which was in honor of the Newfoundlander's visit to a brother who he had not met since leaving his home in sunny Italy, was attended by many prominent people among whom was Rev. Father Dublan, who on more than one occasion visited Newfoundland. When Mr. Nardini first came to America's shores the Franco-Prussian war was at its height, and the young Italian's finances were absolutely nil. However, Mr. Nardini took advantage of his opportunities and in 1876 he wandered to Newfoundland. To-day he is a wealthy man, conducting a fox ranch and store at Nardini's Crossing, called after him by the Reids, and on the main line of railway. Speaking to a North Sydney Herald representative, Mr.
Nardini says that one result of his trip to Memphis will be the arrival here this summer of many wealthy Southerners, who never before heard of this country or Newfoundland as a tourist resort.—North Sydney Herald, April 2.

Makes Your Backache Quickly Disappear.

A Few Doses Relieves All Such Miseries, Bladder Weakness, Kidney Trouble and Rheumatism Promptly Vanish.

It is no longer necessary for any one to suffer with backaching, kidney trouble, have disagreeable bladder and urinary disorders to contend with, or be tortured with rheumatism, stiff joints, and its heart-wrenching pains, for the new discovery, Croxone, quickly and surely relieves all such troubles.

Croxone is the most wonderful remedy yet devised for ridding the system of uric acid and driving out all the poisonous impurities which cause such troubles. It is entirely different from all other remedies. It is not like anything else ever used for the purpose. It acts on the principle of cleaning out the poisons and removing the cause.

It soaks right in through the walls, membranes, and linings, like water in a sponge, neutralizes, dissolves, and makes the kidneys sift out and filter away all the uric acid and poisons from the blood, and leaves the kidneys and urinary organs clean, strong, healthy and well.

It matters not how long you have suffered, how old you are, or what you have used, the very principle of Croxone is such, that it is practically impossible to take it into the human system without results. There is nothing else on earth like it. It starts to work the minute you take it and relieves you the first time you use it.

If you suffer with pains in your back and sides, or have any signs of kidney, bladder troubles, or rheumatism, such as puffy swellings under the eyes, or in the feet and ankles, if you are nervous, tired, and run down, or bothered with urinary disorders, Croxone will quickly relieve you of misery. You can secure an original package of Croxone at a trifling cost from any first-class druggist. All druggists are authorized to personally return the purchase price if it fails in a single case.

Metcalfe's Costumes.

At the mayor's banquet in Kingston, Ont., "Joe" Elliott, in speaking of the fun that a pressman often has, recalled an incident at the expense of the well-known "Jim" Metcalfe, ex-M.P. Mr. Elliott said: "It was in the first of Jim's well-known whirlwind campaigns that I was assigned by my chief to follow Mr. Metcalfe in his nightly visits to the various city wards. At the first meeting Mr. Metcalfe appeared in his customary every-day costume, and, by chance, the paper next day made mention of this fact. Mr. Metcalfe, the next evening, appeared in a Prince Albert with a silk hat and a rosebud on the lapel of his coat, and with a smile and a chirp he said, 'Make a note of that.' Joe, I certainly did. And the next evening James followed up with a swallow-tail and an expansive shirt-front. He was not quite as chirpy on this occasion as on the previous evenings, and at the close of the evening he called me aside and said, 'For God's sake, Joe, don't say anything about this, for if you do, to-morrow night there is nothing for me to do but to either borrow Col. Henry Smith's military uniform or wear my wife's petticoats.' This," Mr. Elliott remarked, "was one of the times when I scored in a few of the fights which the big-hearted 'Jim' lost."

The attractive combinations for wearing under or over the corset are made in softer materials than ever.
