

"Molassine" Meal

is as useful in Summer as in Winter.

"MOLASSINE" MEAL helps all animals to get greater nourishment out of their other foods and digest them.

Worms cannot exist in animals fed on "MOLASSINE" MEAL. It is therefore a necessity during the grazing season.

Good for: HORSES SHEEP
COWS CALVES
OXEN LAMBS
PIGS POULTRY

Try "MOLASSINE" DOG CAKES on your Dog.

What about the Banks, Patsy? Are they broke yet? Will you pledge your little "share" to save it?

Since P. T. McGrath began that diabolical cry about the Banks, E. P. Morris must have had dreams of skeletons in the closets, ghosts in the vaults, and crashes in the banks. Night-mares they were, of course, else, how could he wake up singing!

Patsy's sittin' on the Gov'm't chest, Yo-ho-ho, and a bottle of—
Rats in the cellar rigged up a mare's nest.
Yo-ho-ho, and a bottle of—!

Please observe that what the Plaindealer calls "the lowest and basest in public life" objects to the Telegram saying that Patsy said that Morris could raise a riot in St. John's with a flag and a jar of rum.

The "lowest and basest in public life" now wants to pretend that he uses chaste language, and at the same time he exhibits in the Herald a bottle of bug juice. He can pretend to the highest and descend to the lowest with equal facility.

Morison is big enough to think that his eloquence will hoodwink the people of Bonavista Bay, and fool enough to think that the people of that district respect him all the more since he forgot the law.

Donald Morison forgot the law when he was selling timber, but he didn't forget any law when a fisherman like Bishop went to jail. No thanks to him, though, because Bishop was let out when he should have been kept in.

Some mountains are ten thousand feet high. That is the height of E. P. Morris's fees when he is not getting a salary!

Do you know what it cost this poor country when Morris agreed to pay Reids in cash instead of in debentures? It cost us something like $200,000.

Morris is searching the woods for candidates. Morison, Piccott, Crossie, Woodford are fair sized Bamboos, only they are lacy with sap from the Government chest. The Reed Bamboos is a well known species. Does Morris know that?

Patsy McGrath is a tender young shoot. If he were cultivated he might develop into a promising Bamboos—with a hollow sound. In that respect he differs from a fish sound, which is a very different thing from a sound fish.

Morris hates salaries! But he loves Herring, because they bring along arbitrations, and arbitrations bring him ten thousand dollar fees!

"Science has unveiled the depths of other regions." So has Patsy McGrath! His daring impiety must be the result of being schooled by Ah Sin!

Zam-Buk Proved Best.

AMBULANCE BRIGADES ADOPT IT
Zam-Buk has now been selected as the balm to be carried by the members of the St. John Ambulance Brigade. This is further proof of its superiority.

Mr. G. W. Pyatt, of 15 Southview Avenue, Toronto, Superintendent of the Riverdale Division of the St. John Ambulance Brigade, writes: "Both in personal use and in first-aid work I have proved Zam-Buk to be of great value. I have used it for the past five years, and do not believe there is any other balm to come up to it."

Mr. Geo. H. Westmore, of 127 Yonge Street, Toronto, Divisional Superintendent of the St. John Ambulance Brigade, also writes: "I am pleased to report that the members of this Brigade use Zam-Buk when on public duty, and find it very useful. It is a wonderful healer. Personally, I constantly use Zam-Buk in my calling as a chiropodist, and find it very helpful in healing sore feet, and as a dressing for corns and bunions after treatment and extraction."

Surely a balm that is worthy of a place in the wallet of an ambulance officer should find a place in your home! You may not require it today or next week, but as accidents don't give warning, be prepared. Zam-Buk is compounded on the latest scientific lines. It is at the same time soothing, healing and antiseptic; keeps good. Zam-Buk is a sure cure for skin diseases, eczema, piles, old sores, cuts, burns, poisoned wounds, ringworm, abscesses, sprains, scalds, boils, ulcers, blood-poison, etc. 50 cents, at all druggists and stores. Refuse harmful substitutes and imitations. There is nothing "Just as good."

St. John's, Sept. 20th, 1913.

The Way To Buy Bonds

Says the "Review of Reviews":—"In general, the way to buy bonds is not to bother nearly as much about the banker who sells them. Get a GOOD banker and then put it up to him hard. Ask him if the bonds in his latest circular are the best things he has for you. State your case plainly to him. When a banker knows that an investor is going to keep trading with him as long as he is treated right, and is not merely 'shopping around,' the banker naturally gives 100 per cent. better service in the way of getting just the right thing."

We have reason to believe that this House answers the requirements when a GOOD banker is desired. We will not enter into a discussion of this belief, much preferring to leave the verdict with those investors who are in a position to know about it. And we invite you to "put it up hard" to us when you want honest advice about investments.

MULLALY & Co.*Farewell Concert.

On Monday, Sept. 16th, at 8.30 p.m., a farewell concert was given to Lord and Lady Northcliffe and party in the Town Hall. The hall was very beautifully decorated with electrical effects in colored lights and Chinese lanterns and produced an effect that would indeed do credit to a town of much greater size.

The following is the programme presented, and was designed to include as many branches of local entertainment as possible:—

Part I.—School Children.
1. Brownie's Drill.
2. "The Chinaman."
3. Flag Drill.
4. Doll Drill.

Part II.—Grand Fats Band.
Cornet Solo, Mr. Alexander, Lost Chord.

Part III.—Glee Club.
1. Chorus—Come Gentle May.
2. Solo—Mr. Royer.
3. Chorus—Rock Away on the Billows Gay.
4. Duo—Miss Dayton and Mr. Hackett.
5. Solo—Mr. Powley.
6. Chorus—Gloria in Excelsis Deo.

Part IV.—Movies.
Two Reels.

Part V.—Dramatic Club.
Sketch: "An Easy Mark"

Caste:
Dick Chambers, Graduate of Yale University . . . . . Mr. W. Ireland.
Jack Knowlton, Dick's Room-mate . . . . . Mr. D. A. O'Flynn.

Harry Reinsalser, an Amateur Actor . . . . . Mr. H. Blackall.
Mike Dorriy, Ex-Pugilist . . . . . Mr. F. C. Vane.
Elmer de Bothe, An Escaped Lunatic . . . . . Mr. W. J. Dover.
Dorothy Somers, Miss Irma Dayton.
Mrs. Vera Somers, Miss Bertha Simpfendor.

The items by the school children were exceptionally well done, and caused quite a bit of laughter. The Glee Club came up to expectations, and produced three good choruses equal if not exceeding their previous productions.

The sketch by the dramatic club was very funny and held the attention of the audience from beginning to end, everything going off with clockwork regularity and in tip-top shape. Quite an addition to the musical part of the programme was the orchestra which accompanied the choruses of the Glee Club.

After the programme had been four-fifths completed Mr. Beeton made a short address to the audience and complimented the contributors and the organisers on the excellent entertainment that had been offered, and hoped that each succeeding year would show as great an improvement in all branches, as was noticeable since his last visit.

Through the kindness of Lord Northcliffe a lunch was served after the performance at Wood's Candy Store to those who took such pains to present so enjoyable a concert.

Amongst those present, were the guests of Lord and Lady Northcliffe and Mr. Beeton.

Vessel Meets Mishap.

The schooner David Morris, which went north recently for a cargo of codfish, reached port yesterday in a damaged state. While going into St. Anthony Harbour the vessel struck a rock and as she began to leak, the captain decided to put back for repairs. The vessel will be dry-docked for repairs.

Jolly Well Got To Lay.

A quaint little story is told of the early days of Miss Inez Miholland. "The most beautiful Suffragette in America," as she has been called, who was married secretly during her visit to London.

According to the bride's father, it seems that even as a baby she was very strong-willed. One day her nurse came in despair to Mrs. Miholland and announced that she had found Inez on the top of a haystack and that the child flatly refused to come down.

Mrs. Miholland sallied forth to see what she could do in the matter, but all her coaxing was in vain.

To her mother's entreaties Inez replied firmly: "There's a nasty old hen up here that won't lay her eggs, and I'm going to make her do it."

ADDITIONAL PASSENGERS.—The s.s. Stephano sails this afternoon for Halifax and New York, taking as additional passengers Miss Stattery and Miss Amour.

GOOD ADVICE.

It is necessary to always have a bottle of good Brandy at hand.

What Brandy will you buy?

The Medicinal Brandy "Sanator" is not a properly so-called medicine, but it has been selected from amongst the best known growths for their effective principles, and it is distilled so as to develop its tonic and digestive qualities. It is really the FAMILY BRANDY, which name the public has, for a long time, bestowed on it.

The celebrated French physician, DR. PHARZELLE, Inspector-in-chief of the Great Medical Services, says: "The medicinal Brandy 'Sanator' is eminently an easy digestive drink, remarkable for its tonifying and reinvigorating properties."

Ask for Medicinal Brandy Sanator from your liquor dealer; he has it.

DIRECTIONS.

Against weakness and bad digestion: a liquor glass at each meal.

Against Cold, Influenza take as a hot drink, viz: one ounce and a half of Brandy, one ounce of hot water, with a little sugar.

Against summer complaints: use with chopped ice, or cold water.

A Parson Tells of Some Bitter yet Amusing

Don't be a parson un-blessed with a strong humour and a thick head. A parson's duty is to look after his flock. If he doesn't, he's a failure. If he does, he's a success. They mix in nice welcomes, to prevent a unduly puffed up! The not "a visiting" snub so near that it deserves

I was asked by a friend been offered a living near and see the vicarage and report I did so, and showed me round. As we end, he turned to me.

"Be you our new parson? I may make to hold him that I was L. I had to hear that, sir," he said.

"We've always had a far!"

A nasty double-barrelled shot. An old lady was ill, and to see her. The good was nursing her opened and I explained my business said, "you couldn't. She's getting fretful, and cular who she sees!"

One in the eye, that grinned. These things are as tons.

On one occasion I was house where a man was ill. doctor had said, "He was bed. I wish you could yours."

I duly explained why I was there, and the doctor was worth.

"Water-bed? A water-bed was half a man with half you'd send a bottle of jelly. Water-bed, in snubbed again!

In a scattered parish I an old couple about. "Would like a cup of tea," fessed that I would like much. The dear old soul one, and kept apologising see had no jam nor cake. I her it didn't matter in the "Well, sir," she said, bring "after all, tisn't as if you often what fed high. At see that!"

Just one more. A friend had got a job for a man who a long spell out of work. he was getting pretty shabby looked out a suit—we were a size—and took it round man's wife took it, and I the room, ready to receive which crushed me.

"My husband thanks you sir, but he don't hold with
