

TRINITY.

human enough to be pleased with the world of appreciation of my notes in the Evening Telegram given by Mr. I. C. Morris in August 4th, and I am glad enough to thank him publicly. Some one has said that I am seldom realized. I am glad because it admits a possibility. When I began to write these week-end notes, my ideal was to keep Trinitarians abroad, in the day-by-day doing of their native town, and to remind them of the deeply interesting things of Trinity, as handed down in tradition, and recorded in the Church Registers. The many expressions of those efforts that I have received from here and everywhere had encouraged me to hope that my ideal was realized. The kind assurance of Mr. Morris (who with his pen the pulse of public opinion) has completely removed any such doubts, and the realization that I have done something for the good of my birth, makes me glad that I am able to express again. I say, thank you, Morris.

PITTMAN'S 88TH BIRTHDAY.
Thursday, August, 9th, the home was in festive to celebrate the 88th anniversary of Pittman's birthday. This is regarded as an event for a gathering, and the invitations and the guests, as Doctor and Mrs. and Canon Lockyer, as out-are always regarded by them, which is fully appreciated. Although four of the family took part in the celebration, they were unable to be present; yet four others who were last year were present this year making the number at tea, the same as that of last year. The additional persons who present this year were, Miss

LINES BY REV. HENRY H. PITTMAN, M.A.
On His Mother's 88th Birthday, August 9th, 1923.
"Her children arise up, and call her blessed." Prov. 31-28.

is not for length of too-swift year alone
The tribute of our filial love we pay;
But joined with worth of virtue, as your own,
We rise to bless you, on this Natal Day.
Well done, dear Mother, and no false yet—
The eight and four-score full, ripe years be thine!
Beyond life's span, but hale and hearty still,
And faculties in tune, if lovelier,
To suffer, sweeter strains of evensong,
Well done! In sorrow patient, brave to bear, to trust—
The silver lining seen in the cloud—
And quick to feel for others, and to cheer
With sympathetic word and kindly deed.
Well done! Thine is the enviable old age,
The calm of harvest after stress of spring—
Summer with summer always in the heart—
In golden fruitage that which thou hast sown.

We pledge thee now, and wish thee glad returns!
And our fond hope returns commendate
And matched with senses for their full delight,
And all that sweetens most life's latest cup.
My love of all thy dear ones, I compass thee
In spirit joined to-day, at home, afar,
Richer in blessings for the sacrifice
Of other days, full of unselfish deeds.
Let peace that passeth knowledge dwell in thee,
In love o'er all unfold and shadow thee;
And when his last, best gift, the crown of life,
Is laid up for all who faithfully have served—
Rest eternal—Light Eternal!

Like her, that other Mary of the Word,
Who poured the sweet and precious ointment out,
Filling the home with fragrance, so be thy Memorial—"She hath done what she could."

MR. BAILEY, 1729—DAVID ROBERT BAILEY, 1898.

Genealogy of Rev. David R. Bailey.

—Married, David Bailey and Waterman. (He was from Dorset, or Devon.)
—Children: Mary 1760, David 1764, Patience 1772.
—Married, David Bailey, Jr. at Bonaventura, and Elizabeth daughter of William and Mary of Trinity.
—Children: Patience 1798, Hon. 1801, Betty 1808, Mary 1806, Hannah 1809, George Waterman 1811.

—Married, George Waterman and Mary Bannister.
—Children: William 1844, David 1846, Charity 1852, Keziah 1856, George Waterman 1859, George Bannister 1861.
—Married, George Bannister and Martha Miller.
—Children: Mary 1885, David 1889.

LOCAL ITEMS.

A neat and Christian-like headstone has been placed in the Church of St. John's Cemetery to mark the grave of Thomas Dampier, who died at Grand Falls in 1917.

A friend of mine asked me a few days ago if there is any record in the Registers of the Pelley family, and which family came from Poley and settled in Trinity in 1808. I have looked over the Registers in the old Registers, but I could not find the name of Pelley there, and as a great-grand-child was a representative of the fourth generation. We were glad to see them all.

presentative of the fourth generation. We were glad to see them all.

Mr. George DeGrah, who had been visiting at St. John's, returned last week (like a giant refreshed). He will spend some time with his daughter at Catalina, before fall time.

Mr. and Mrs. George House, Miss House, and Master Edgar, spent a delightful fortnight, in camp at Glen Cove, Trinity, and are now visiting friends before returning to respective duties. Come again.

Mr. George House is having a substantial concrete curbing placed around his family lot in the Church of England Cemetery. Mr. Grant intends to do the same in connection with his family lot in the same Cemetery. This treatment constitutes a valuable outline of a burial lot, and would be repeated by others if it were not so expensive.

Mr. George Bugden (son of the late Benjamin Bugden) who has been living at St. John's for some years, spent a week at Trinity and returned by Portia. Glad to see you, George.

Mr. John House and his boys; Mr. Fred House and wife, and Mr. John White, of St. John's, came by the Portia, and are spending an enjoyable outing at Trinity East. We are glad to see them all. May pleasure, and profit to health be the results thereof.

Little Mary Earp, daughter of the rector of St. Thomas, came to Trinity by the Portia, and is the guest of her friend, Miss Mollie White. She is sure to have a delightful time, and we are glad to welcome her to beautiful Trinity.

Mr. Alonzo Coleridge, Teller in the West End Branch of the Royal Bank of Canada, St. John's, spent an enjoyable week in the old home at Trinity, and returns to duty by the Portia. Always glad to see you Alonzo. That big trout of God's Cove Pond was worth coming for.

Mrs. Pittman, 88
2nd generation, Mrs. E. Hiscok, 64.
3rd generation, Capt. Geo. Hiscok, 40.
4th generation, Ian Hiscok, 8

Rev. G. D. Lightbourn, his mother and sister came to Trinity by the Portia last week, and are staying at the Garland. We are sorry that, in common with other places along the coast, our weather has not been as enjoyable as it was a few weeks ago. The sensible, cheerful, optimistic attitude of the Lightbourns, however, enabled them to enjoy their visit, and to become in themselves a source of real enjoyment to us all. Mr. Grant very kindly placed his auto at their disposal, and with Mr. Lightbourn at the wheel, they roamed fancy free all over the parish, for a while. The reverend gentleman kindly took part in the services at St. Paul's on Sunday, and perched at the morning and evening services, for which he has our best thanks. They return to St. John's at an early date, with some pleasant recollections of Trinity, and their friends at the Hotel, and Trinity generally, will be delighted to have them come again.

Mr. Frank Brady, of St. John's, and a few days with his brother at home. Frank was one of the noblest of shoemakers in Trinity some years ago, and is now a packman in the employ of George Knowling. Glad to see you, Frank.

Twenty-seven of the thirty men of Little Harbour have left the place. So they go.

Rev. Andrew Tulk, rector of Port-Cove, who had been Chaplain with the presentative of the fourth generation. We were glad to see them all.

Mr. George DeGrah, who had been visiting at St. John's, returned last week (like a giant refreshed). He will spend some time with his daughter at Catalina, before fall time.

Mr. and Mrs. George House, Miss House, and Master Edgar, spent a delightful fortnight, in camp at Glen Cove, Trinity, and are now visiting friends before returning to respective duties. Come again.

Mr. George House is having a substantial concrete curbing placed around his family lot in the Church of England Cemetery. Mr. Grant intends to do the same in connection with his family lot in the same Cemetery. This treatment constitutes a valuable outline of a burial lot, and would be repeated by others if it were not so expensive.

Mr. George Bugden (son of the late Benjamin Bugden) who has been living at St. John's for some years, spent a week at Trinity and returned by Portia. Glad to see you, George.

Mr. John House and his boys; Mr. Fred House and wife, and Mr. John White, of St. John's, came by the Portia, and are spending an enjoyable outing at Trinity East. We are glad to see them all. May pleasure, and profit to health be the results thereof.

Little Mary Earp, daughter of the rector of St. Thomas, came to Trinity by the Portia, and is the guest of her friend, Miss Mollie White. She is sure to have a delightful time, and we are glad to welcome her to beautiful Trinity.

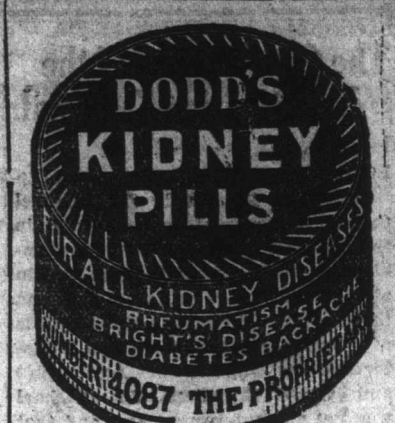

Mr. Alonzo Coleridge, Teller in the West End Branch of the Royal Bank of Canada, St. John's, spent an enjoyable week in the old home at Trinity, and returns to duty by the Portia. Always glad to see you Alonzo. That big trout of God's Cove Pond was worth coming for.

Mrs. Pittman, 88
2nd generation, Mrs. E. Hiscok, 64.
3rd generation, Capt. Geo. Hiscok, 40.
4th generation, Ian Hiscok, 8

Rev. G. D. Lightbourn, his mother and sister came to Trinity by the Portia last week, and are staying at the Garland. We are sorry that, in common with other places along the coast, our weather has not been as enjoyable as it was a few weeks ago. The sensible, cheerful, optimistic attitude of the Lightbourns, however, enabled them to enjoy their visit, and to become in themselves a source of real enjoyment to us all. Mr. Grant very kindly placed his auto at their disposal, and with Mr. Lightbourn at the wheel, they roamed fancy free all over the parish, for a while. The reverend gentleman kindly took part in the services at St. Paul's on Sunday, and perched at the morning and evening services, for which he has our best thanks. They return to St. John's at an early date, with some pleasant recollections of Trinity, and their friends at the Hotel, and Trinity generally, will be delighted to have them come again.

Mr. Frank Brady, of St. John's, and a few days with his brother at home. Frank was one of the noblest of shoemakers in Trinity some years ago, and is now a packman in the employ of George Knowling. Glad to see you, Frank.

Twenty-seven of the thirty men of Little Harbour have left the place. So they go.

Bishop of Newfoundland on the South Coast, came to Trinity on Monday last. Previous to Mr. Tulk having taken Holy Orders, he was one of our most successful school teachers in Trinity, and is still remembered as such. His many friends in Trinity are glad to welcome him. Mrs. Tulk and Master Davy are still here, and will go back to Portugal Cove with the Parson.

Mr. William House Jr., of Grand Falls, is visiting relatives in his home town of Trinity, and will return to duty on Tuesday next. We are still sufficiently interested in John Brown and family, who moved to Grand Falls last year, to be sorry to hear of the death of his eldest son, Erick.

Mr. Thomas House Sr., leaves on Tuesday next for Grand Falls, where he will live in the future. Sorry to have him go; but—

The annual Flower Service, and commemoration of the faithful departed, will be held in the Church of England Cemetery to-morrow. The Holy Communion will be celebrated in the Mortuary Chapel at 8 o'clock, and a special service, with an address, will be held in the cemetery at 3 o'clock.

Miss Lella Taylor and her brother, of St. John's, are registered at the Garland, and will spend a week at Trinity. Glad to see them.

Mrs. Ariana House, mother of Geo. and John House, is visiting at her old home, Trinity. Glad to see her.

Magistrate Somerton had the misfortune to fall yesterday, and broke a rib.

ANSWERS TO CORRESPONDENTS.

Curious:—The first recorded Baptism in the old Church Register, is that of Patience, daughter Benjamin and Ann Taverger, Sept. 7th, 1763.

The first recorded marriage is that of Dennis Young and Joan Mulkachy, on April 11th, 1767.

The first recorded burial is that of George Gillet, son of Richard and Mary Gillet, on May 12th, 1767.

J. B.—John and Hannah Waterman were married before the Church records were kept (1757) thus you will find a record of one of their daughters married to David Bailey in 1768.

Mrs. Waterman was buried in 1767. Clerk.—When John Clinch (who afterwards was ordained) was married in 1754, he was a Surgeon in Trinity Bight.

W. J. L.
Trinity, August 18th, 1923.

The My Own Food Products

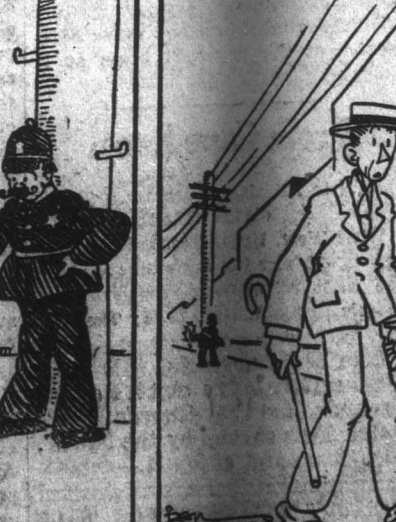

Are known throughout Newfoundland for their high standard of quality.

My Own Evaporated Milk
My Own Pork and Beans
My Own Catsup
My Own Assorted Soups
My Own Tomato Soup
My Own Chicken Soup
My Own Clam Chowder
My Own Red Kidney Beans
My Own Chili Sauce
My Own Salad Dressing
My Own Hominy
My Own Mustard Dressing
are some of the delicious articles put up by the My Own Co.
No more delightfully appetizing foods have ever been put on the market.
Ask your dealer.
JOHN B. ORR, Agent.
aug11,15,18,22,25,29,sep1,5

At All Dealers. GERALD S. DOYLE, DISTRIBUTOR.

BILLY'S UNCLE

Summer Suits—And Some Are Not.

Mr. and Mrs. Richard Hiscok and child, of Grand Falls, spent a week at Trinity; took part in the 88th birthday celebration of Mr. Hiscok's grandmother, Mrs. Pittman, and returned to Grand Falls. The little girl, (Mary Muriel Joice Hiscok) was also present at the celebration, and as a great-grand-child was a representative of the fourth generation. We were glad to see them all.

Mr. George DeGrah, who had been visiting at St. John's, returned last week (like a giant refreshed). He will spend some time with his daughter at Catalina, before fall time.

Mr. and Mrs. George House, Miss House, and Master Edgar, spent a delightful fortnight, in camp at Glen Cove, Trinity, and are now visiting friends before returning to respective duties. Come again.

Mr. George House is having a substantial concrete curbing placed around his family lot in the Church of England Cemetery. Mr. Grant intends to do the same in connection with his family lot in the same Cemetery. This treatment constitutes a valuable outline of a burial lot, and would be repeated by others if it were not so expensive.

Mr. George Bugden (son of the late Benjamin Bugden) who has been living at St. John's for some years, spent a week at Trinity and returned by Portia. Glad to see you, George.

Mr. John House and his boys; Mr. Fred House and wife, and Mr. John White, of St. John's, came by the Portia, and are spending an enjoyable outing at Trinity East. We are glad to see them all. May pleasure, and profit to health be the results thereof.

Little Mary Earp, daughter of the rector of St. Thomas, came to Trinity by the Portia, and is the guest of her friend, Miss Mollie White. She is sure to have a delightful time, and we are glad to welcome her to beautiful Trinity.

Mr. Alonzo Coleridge, Teller in the West End Branch of the Royal Bank of Canada, St. John's, spent an enjoyable week in the old home at Trinity, and returns to duty by the Portia. Always glad to see you Alonzo. That big trout of God's Cove Pond was worth coming for.

Mrs. Pittman, 88
2nd generation, Mrs. E. Hiscok, 64.
3rd generation, Capt. Geo. Hiscok, 40.
4th generation, Ian Hiscok, 8

Rev. G. D. Lightbourn, his mother and sister came to Trinity by the Portia last week, and are staying at the Garland. We are sorry that, in common with other places along the coast, our weather has not been as enjoyable as it was a few weeks ago. The sensible, cheerful, optimistic attitude of the Lightbourns, however, enabled them to enjoy their visit, and to become in themselves a source of real enjoyment to us all. Mr. Grant very kindly placed his auto at their disposal, and with Mr. Lightbourn at the wheel, they roamed fancy free all over the parish, for a while. The reverend gentleman kindly took part in the services at St. Paul's on Sunday, and perched at the morning and evening services, for which he has our best thanks. They return to St. John's at an early date, with some pleasant recollections of Trinity, and their friends at the Hotel, and Trinity generally, will be delighted to have them come again.

Mr. Frank Brady, of St. John's, and a few days with his brother at home. Frank was one of the noblest of shoemakers in Trinity some years ago, and is now a packman in the employ of George Knowling. Glad to see you, Frank.

Twenty-seven of the thirty men of Little Harbour have left the place. So they go.

Rev. Andrew Tulk, rector of Port-Cove, who had been Chaplain with the presentative of the fourth generation. We were glad to see them all.

Mr. George DeGrah, who had been visiting at St. John's, returned last week (like a giant refreshed). He will spend some time with his daughter at Catalina, before fall time.

Mr. and Mrs. George House, Miss House, and Master Edgar, spent a delightful fortnight, in camp at Glen Cove, Trinity, and are now visiting friends before returning to respective duties. Come again.

Mr. George House is having a substantial concrete curbing placed around his family lot in the Church of England Cemetery. Mr. Grant intends to do the same in connection with his family lot in the same Cemetery. This treatment constitutes a valuable outline of a burial lot, and would be repeated by others if it were not so expensive.

Mr. George Bugden (son of the late Benjamin Bugden) who has been living at St. John's for some years, spent a week at Trinity and returned by Portia. Glad to see you, George.

Mr. John House and his boys; Mr. Fred House and wife, and Mr. John White, of St. John's, came by the Portia, and are spending an enjoyable outing at Trinity East. We are glad to see them all. May pleasure, and profit to health be the results thereof.

Little Mary Earp, daughter of the rector of St. Thomas, came to Trinity by the Portia, and is the guest of her friend, Miss Mollie White. She is sure to have a delightful time, and we are glad to welcome her to beautiful Trinity.

Mr. Alonzo Coleridge, Teller in the West End Branch of the Royal Bank of Canada, St. John's, spent an enjoyable week in the old home at Trinity, and returns to duty by the Portia. Always glad to see you Alonzo. That big trout of God's Cove Pond was worth coming for.

Mrs. Pittman, 88
2nd generation, Mrs. E. Hiscok, 64.
3rd generation, Capt. Geo. Hiscok, 40.
4th generation, Ian Hiscok, 8

Rev. G. D. Lightbourn, his mother and sister came to Trinity by the Portia last week, and are staying at the Garland. We are sorry that, in common with other places along the coast, our weather has not been as enjoyable as it was a few weeks ago. The sensible, cheerful, optimistic attitude of the Lightbourns, however, enabled them to enjoy their visit, and to become in themselves a source of real enjoyment to us all. Mr. Grant very kindly placed his auto at their disposal, and with Mr. Lightbourn at the wheel, they roamed fancy free all over the parish, for a while. The reverend gentleman kindly took part in the services at St. Paul's on Sunday, and perched at the morning and evening services, for which he has our best thanks. They return to St. John's at an early date, with some pleasant recollections of Trinity, and their friends at the Hotel, and Trinity generally, will be delighted to have them come again.

Mr. Frank Brady, of St. John's, and a few days with his brother at home. Frank was one of the noblest of shoemakers in Trinity some years ago, and is now a packman in the employ of George Knowling. Glad to see you, Frank.

Twenty-seven of the thirty men of Little Harbour have left the place. So they go.

Rev. Andrew Tulk, rector of Port-Cove, who had been Chaplain with the presentative of the fourth generation. We were glad to see them all.

Mr. George DeGrah, who had been visiting at St. John's, returned last week (like a giant refreshed). He will spend some time with his daughter at Catalina, before fall time.

Mr. and Mrs. George House, Miss House, and Master Edgar, spent a delightful fortnight, in camp at Glen Cove, Trinity, and are now visiting friends before returning to respective duties. Come again.

Mr. George House is having a substantial concrete curbing placed around his family lot in the Church of England Cemetery. Mr. Grant intends to do the same in connection with his family lot in the same Cemetery. This treatment constitutes a valuable outline of a burial lot, and would be repeated by others if it were not so expensive.

Mr. George Bugden (son of the late Benjamin Bugden) who has been living at St. John's for some years, spent a week at Trinity and returned by Portia. Glad to see you, George.

Mr. John House and his boys; Mr. Fred House and wife, and Mr. John White, of St. John's, came by the Portia, and are spending an enjoyable outing at Trinity East. We are glad to see them all. May pleasure, and profit to health be the results thereof.

Little Mary Earp, daughter of the rector of St. Thomas, came to Trinity by the Portia, and is the guest of her friend, Miss Mollie White. She is sure to have a delightful time, and we are glad to welcome her to beautiful Trinity.

Mr. Alonzo Coleridge, Teller in the West End Branch of the Royal Bank of Canada, St. John's, spent an enjoyable week in the old home at Trinity, and returns to duty by the Portia. Always glad to see you Alonzo. That big trout of God's Cove Pond was worth coming for.

Mrs. Pittman, 88
2nd generation, Mrs. E. Hiscok, 64.
3rd generation, Capt. Geo. Hiscok, 40.
4th generation, Ian Hiscok, 8

Rev. G. D. Lightbourn, his mother and sister came to Trinity by the Portia last week, and are staying at the Garland. We are sorry that, in common with other places along the coast, our weather has not been as enjoyable as it was a few weeks ago. The sensible, cheerful, optimistic attitude of the Lightbourns, however, enabled them to enjoy their visit, and to become in themselves a source of real enjoyment to us all. Mr. Grant very kindly placed his auto at their disposal, and with Mr. Lightbourn at the wheel, they roamed fancy free all over the parish, for a while. The reverend gentleman kindly took part in the services at St. Paul's on Sunday, and perched at the morning and evening services, for which he has our best thanks. They return to St. John's at an early date, with some pleasant recollections of Trinity, and their friends at the Hotel, and Trinity generally, will be delighted to have them come again.

Mr. Frank Brady, of St. John's, and a few days with his brother at home. Frank was one of the noblest of shoemakers in Trinity some years ago, and is now a packman in the employ of George Knowling. Glad to see you, Frank.

Twenty-seven of the thirty men of Little Harbour have left the place. So they go.

Rev. Andrew Tulk, rector of Port-Cove, who had been Chaplain with the presentative of the fourth generation. We were glad to see them all.

Mr. George DeGrah, who had been visiting at St. John's, returned last week (like a giant refreshed). He will spend some time with his daughter at Catalina, before fall time.

Mr. and Mrs. George House, Miss House, and Master Edgar, spent a delightful fortnight, in camp at Glen Cove, Trinity, and are now visiting friends before returning to respective duties. Come again.

Mr. George House is having a substantial concrete curbing placed around his family lot in the Church of England Cemetery. Mr. Grant intends to do the same in connection with his family lot in the same Cemetery. This treatment constitutes a valuable outline of a burial lot, and would be repeated by others if it were not so expensive.

Mr. George Bugden (son of the late Benjamin Bugden) who has been living at St. John's for some years, spent a week at Trinity and returned by Portia. Glad to see you, George.

Mr. John House and his boys; Mr. Fred House and wife, and Mr. John White, of St. John's, came by the Portia, and are spending an enjoyable outing at Trinity East. We are glad to see them all. May pleasure, and profit to health be the results thereof.

Little Mary Earp, daughter of the rector of St. Thomas, came to Trinity by the Portia, and is the guest of her friend, Miss Mollie White. She is sure to have a delightful time, and we are glad to welcome her to beautiful Trinity.

Mr. Alonzo Coleridge, Teller in the West End Branch of the Royal Bank of Canada, St. John's, spent an enjoyable week in the old home at Trinity, and returns to duty by the Portia. Always glad to see you Alonzo. That big trout of God's Cove Pond was worth coming for.

Mrs. Pittman, 88
2nd generation, Mrs. E. Hiscok, 64.
3rd generation, Capt. Geo. Hiscok, 40.
4th generation, Ian Hiscok, 8

Rev. G. D. Lightbourn, his mother and sister came to Trinity by the Portia last week, and are staying at the Garland. We are sorry that, in common with other places along the coast, our weather has not been as enjoyable as it was a few weeks ago. The sensible, cheerful, optimistic attitude of the Lightbourns, however, enabled them to enjoy their visit, and to become in themselves a source of real enjoyment to us all. Mr. Grant very kindly placed his auto at their disposal, and with Mr. Lightbourn at the wheel, they roamed fancy free all over the parish, for a while. The reverend gentleman kindly took part in the services at St. Paul's on Sunday, and perched at the morning and evening services, for which he has our best thanks. They return to St. John's at an early date, with some pleasant recollections of Trinity, and their friends at the Hotel, and Trinity generally, will be delighted to have them come again.

Mr. Frank Brady, of St. John's, and a few days with his brother at home. Frank was one of the noblest of shoemakers in Trinity some years ago, and is now a packman in the employ of George Knowling. Glad to see you, Frank.

Twenty-seven of the thirty men of Little Harbour have left the place. So they go.

Rev. Andrew Tulk, rector of Port-Cove, who had been Chaplain with the presentative of the fourth generation. We were glad to see them all.

Mr. George DeGrah, who had been visiting at St. John's, returned last week (like a giant refreshed). He will spend some time with his daughter at Catalina, before fall time.

Mr. and Mrs. George House, Miss House, and Master Edgar, spent a delightful fortnight, in camp at Glen Cove, Trinity, and are now visiting friends before returning to respective duties. Come again.

Mr. George House is having a substantial concrete curbing placed around his family lot in the Church of England Cemetery. Mr. Grant intends to do the same in connection with his family lot in the same Cemetery. This treatment constitutes a valuable outline of a burial lot, and would be repeated by others if it were not so expensive.

Mr. George Bugden (son of the late Benjamin Bugden) who has been living at St. John's for some years, spent a week at Trinity and returned by Portia. Glad to see you, George.

Mr. John House and his boys; Mr. Fred House and wife, and Mr. John White, of St. John's, came by the Portia, and are spending an enjoyable outing at Trinity East. We are glad to see them all. May pleasure, and profit to health be the results thereof.

Little Mary Earp, daughter of the rector of St. Thomas, came to Trinity by the Portia, and is the guest of her friend, Miss Mollie White. She is sure to have a delightful time, and we are glad to welcome her to beautiful Trinity.

Mr. Alonzo Coleridge, Teller in the West End Branch of the Royal Bank of Canada, St. John's, spent an enjoyable week in the old home at Trinity, and returns to duty by the Portia. Always glad to see you Alonzo. That big trout of God's Cove Pond was worth coming for.

Mrs. Pittman, 88
2nd generation, Mrs. E. Hiscok, 64.
3rd generation, Capt. Geo. Hiscok, 40.
4th generation, Ian Hiscok, 8

Rev. G. D. Lightbourn, his mother and sister came to Trinity by the Portia last week, and are staying at the Garland. We are sorry that, in common with other places along the coast