

The Elora Times on Drew's Defeat.

We are not at all surprised that the Elora Times should feel terribly chagrined at Mr. Drew's defeat in North Wellington. We should rather be surprised if it was not so. Apart from business and other connections with the late member, it was the only paper in the County that warmly espoused his cause, and valiantly fought to the end to secure his election. The Tory Herald in Guelph made one or two little spots in his favour, but with these exceptions it left him to fight the battle alone, and concentrated its whole energies on its pet in the Centre Riding. We can, therefore, make allowance for a great deal which the Times says in accounting for the defeat of its candidate, but there are two charges it makes which we cannot allow to pass over in silence.

It states first, that Hon. Mr. McKellar appeared in the field and made a personal canvass. Now, this is not correct. Mr. McKellar did, it is true, appear in the field. He addressed one meeting at Cotswold; he was present and spoke at the nomination; and if we mistake not he spoke again at a meeting in Arthur. But he made no personal canvass. And who, we would ask, was the cause of Mr. McKellar going into the North Riding. None but Mr. Drew himself. During the canvass, and at all his meetings he almost entirely ignored the questions connected with the legislation of the Dominion Parliament, and sought most unjustly to damage his opponent and the Local Government of Ontario, by bringing charges against it, which were unfounded in themselves, and which should not have come up for discussion at a Dominion election. Mr. McKellar appeared in the field to answer these charges, to vindicate the character of the Government to which he belonged; and his presence there, his truthful statements, and his able and convincing addresses had the desired effect. Had Mr. Drew confined himself to the question which legitimately belonged to the Parliament to which he sought to be elected, he would not have been troubled with Mr. McKellar. But he chose to summon the Local Government to the bar of public opinion, and Mr. McKellar did no more than his duty in appearing as its advocate, and defending its course, which he did to the satisfaction of every candid elector.

The second charge the Times makes is that the Crown Land Valuator for the North Riding "menaced the electors, and poor settlers who were in arrears for their lands were made to tremble in their shoes; some were told plainly that they voted right the price of their lands would be reduced." Now, we brand the above statement as an unmitigated falsehood. Mr. Drew in the course of his speech at the nomination alluded to the presence of Mr. John Milloy at that gathering, but he had not the hardihood to make this bold and unblushing statement himself at that time, but now gives it currency through his organ. He said there that he had no evidence that Mr. Milloy was interfering in election matters at all, and we happen to know that he continued to keep aloof from any canvassing whatsoever. The charge therefore does Mr. Milloy great injustice. That gentleman is an elector in the North Riding, and why should he—simply because he happens to have a temporary appointment from the Government—be precluded from attending any public gathering, or taking an interest as an individual elector in the contest.

With regard to the other charges which the Times makes about bribery and other influences employed, the less it says about these the better. We happen to know too much about the means used by Mr. Drew during his canvass, and if the Times is anxious for information we can supply it with more than might be agreeable. It is better for our contemporary to own up that Mr. Drew has been fairly beaten, and say no more about it.

The Kilkenny Cats.

Yesterday we copied a paragraph from the Canadian Freeman, in which Mr. G. A. Drew is handled rather roughly. The Elora Times of course comes to Geo. A.'s rescue, and makes an accusation against the editor, with respect to Fenianism which we believe is entirely without foundation and of a most scandalous character. Still, it shows how these Tory editors, when they fall out, abuse each other without stint or mercy. Had the Freeman only supported Mr. Drew, and condescended with him over his defeat, what a nice fellow Moylan would have been in the estimation of the Times. The following is the little gem from the Times—

A FENIAN CUT-THROAT. Our attention has just been called to an article in a disreputable sheet called the Canadian Freeman, published in Toronto, whose editor lately occupied the position of Dominion Emigrant Agent in Ireland, but who has been lately dismissed in consequence of his badly cloaked sympathies with Fenianism and who since his return to this country has, as it is well known, been privately fraternizing with his Fenian brethren whilst pretending publicly to support the Government which he is endeavoring to undermine. The above editor's name is Moylan, and he no doubt gloats over Mr. Drew's defeat, because he is known to have no Fenian sympathies. In our next issue we will again refer to this cut-throat and endeavor to depict him in his true colors.

Speaking of the Wentworths, the Hamilton Times says—"North Wentworth is perfectly safe. All parties admit that Mr. Bain will be elected by a very handsome majority over his opponent, Mr. McKechnie. Both are Scotchmen, but Mr. McKechnie is a Tory, and the stubbornness, intractability, and fossilism of Scotch Tories has become proverbial. Mr. Bain is a Reformer, a man of high abilities, and liberal in all his views, and will, we are assured, command a sweeping majority. In South Wentworth the contest will be a little closer than in the North Riding. Dr. Bethune, though a highly respectable man, is not a good public speaker, and is no match for Mr. Bynal on the stump. That he has some popularity as a gentleman and a practitioner of medicine, we have no doubt, but all parties admit "honest Joe's" independence, his natural and acquired abilities, and, therefore, we have no fears for his success.

ELECTION NEWS.

Sir Francis Hincks has given up hope of carrying Brant, and has written to parties in East Grey, stating that he was "an available candidate for that Riding." The Tories there couldn't see it, and declined his offer. "Wha wants me?" is now the question which Sir Francis would like to have solved.

The nomination for the North Riding of the County of Brant took place at Paris on Friday, when the following gentlemen were nominated:—A. H. Baird; Gavin Fleming; J. J. Hawkins, of Brantford; Hugh Finlayson; Alfred Watts, of Brantford; William Turnbull; Hon. John O'Connor, of Essex; Arthur Hardy, of Brantford; Claudius Byrne, of Brantford, and J. W. Bowley, of Brantford. All retired but Messrs. Baird and Fleming.

We notice Sir John A. Macdonald and William McDougall—a precious pair—are travelling up westward to influence the elections shortly to take place in that direction. To-day they are to address a meeting at Clinton.

In New Brunswick we are happy to announce the election of Mr. Cutler, a decided Oppositionist, for Kent, defeating Mr. Renaud, the Government candidate.

The Globe says:—We have full returns from Nova Scotia, and in spite of the return of the Ministerial candidates for Halifax, we are happy to find that the Government have only elected ten out of the twenty-one representatives. The remaining 11 are not all avowed Oppositionists, but we believe that every one of them will gladly join in bringing about a change of Government if their votes will accomplish it.

The Brockville Recorder charges the Returning Officer for the Brockville election, Mr. Redmond, with being guilty of a mean trick. He, it would appear, appointed twelve Deputy Returning Officers from the Conservative ranks, young men who had no votes. As soon as they were sworn in they were instructed to select their poll clerks from the Reform ranks, which they did, thus killing twelve votes for the Reform candidate.

The Hon. John O'Connor, President of the Council, hurried from Windsor to assist his friend, Hon. John Hillyard Cameron, the ex-Grand Master of the Orange Order, but the intelligent Catholic electors of Peel ignored his advice and voted in a body for Mr. Smith, the Opposition candidate.

The Newmarket Era has information from a tolerably reliable source that the rejected of Peel, Hon. J. H. Cameron, is making arrangements to find a resting place in Cardwell. The hero of "Spitton" notoriety has been in consultation with the Knight of Kingstons, who promised to make things agreeable, provided Tom would give way. Terms were agreed upon, we understand; and the distinguished of South Simcoe has consented to take a back seat. The price to be paid has not transpired; but rumour has it, Ferguson is to be shelved! We presume he has succeeded satisfactorily for himself, while the members of both the Commons and Local Legislature will rejoice to get rid of one of the greatest bores that ever occupied a seat in the Halls of a Canadian Legislature.

The following is the official statement of the votes polled for each candidate in South Grey:—

Table with 2 columns: Candidate Name and Votes. Includes Jackson, Landerkin, Normanby, Bentinck, Gleneig, Egremont, Total, and Majority for Landerkin.

On Wednesday evening a man named John Winters was shot at Lonsdale, in the County of Hastings, by three desperadoes named Dominick Tye, James Smith and Daniel Smith, who are still at large. Winters is still alive, but small hopes are entertained of his recovery.

Chief Justice Morris arrived at Fort Garry on Monday, and was sworn into office by the Lieutenant Governor, at the Government House.
