COURTESY SERVICE

A Warm House FIRST

There is one absolute essential for home comfort in winter time—a warm house. Are you certain that you are giving this vital item in home comfort its proper consideration. Why struggle through next winter worrying every time the weather falls below zero? Why suffer the discomfort of a cold, chilly home?

Now is the time to go seriously into your warm air furnace problem. We are better situated to give you service at the present time. If you feel your present furnace should be overhauled, or are anxious to receive expert advice on your heating problem.

COLLINGWOOD NOTES

Mrs. Leburdis is in town again and is comfortably installed in her summer home at the beach. We trust her health will be greatly benefited.

Mrs. Wm. Woods of Creemore and Mrs. Hizie, of Saginaw, spent the week end with their sister, Mrs. J. Green.

The Collingwood friends of Rev. W. J. Hamilton received the sad news this week that he had passed away at Watling Island, Bahamas, where he went about two years ago to take charge of a circuit.

Miss Marguerite Sheffield, who has been in the G. and M. Hospital for some time is so much improved as to be able to be moved to her home again.

Master Wilfie Sheffield has been on the sick list but is much better at this writing.

Little Herbie Morrison had the misfortune to have 3 of his fingers badly cut in the lawn mower. They are doing nicely at this writing.

Mr. Wilfred Sheffield and Mr. Russell Sheffield are home for a time their boats having layed up till the fall trade.

Rev. T. H. Jackson preached his farewell sermon on Sunday evening. We trust this new field of labour will prove a success. A farewell luncheon was served for him in the church on Monday evening by the Literary Society.
