FOUR CRIMINAL CASES

For the County Court Which Opens Monday—1wo Jury and One Non-Jury Action.

The County Court for Middlesex will open in the Court House on Monday morning. Junior Judge Elliot will hold his first sitting. The list, so far as entered, guarantees some interesting cases, comprising four oriminal actions. Edward Starr will have to answer to the charge of neglecting to support his family. The grainstealing cases are but one, and in that John Delaney is the defendant. He is charged with being connected with Abraham Pinkham, who is now serving time, in the stealing of grain from some London township farmers. The disappearance of Tillie Doucette will again be resurrected, when Mrs. Susannah Watson, a neighbor of the Doucette's on Ridoutstreet, will be charged with the abduction of the little girl. The last of the criminal cases is that of the Queen vs. Peter Madden and James Fox, both remanded from the Police Court on a charge of assaulting Peter Lewis in a billiard-room about two weeks ago.

The only jury case of importance is the Molson's Bank vs. Campbell—An action arising through a note for $350 made to the Ontario Insurance Company, and by them transferred to the bank, the amount of claim now being $221 12.

S321 12.

The only non-jury case is Labatt vs. Morkin. It is an appeal case which arose through the claim of the defendant that a rebate should be allowed on a quantity of liquor which he purchased from the plaintift. Fraser & Fraser for plaintiff, Mc-phillips for detendant.

He thinks that every egg not yet coated with a solid shell departs from the spherical form and elongates, simply because of pressure on it by the walls of the ovary. In birds which keep a vertical position when at rest (such as the falcon owl) the soft eggs become short through the bird's weight acting against the ovarian pressure. In birds which, like the grebe, are nearly always swimming, the egg lengthens, because the weight of the body acts in the same direction as the ovarian compression.
