ONE OF ENGLAND'S BRAVE SOLDIERS WITH LORD KITCHENER WHILE IN THE BOUDAN WAS IN THE DASH FOR KHARTUM." WOUNDED. GIVEN UP TO DIE. HOW HIS LIFE WAS SAVED. KNOWN IN THE ARMY AS

"DELI-DERVISH TED"

Such Are the Pride and Strength of England.

The thrilling experiences and hair-breadth escapes of "Deli-Dervish Ted" while under General, now Lord, Kit-chener in the Sandan was are well chener, in the Soudan war, are well remembered. He stands 6 feet 3 inches in stockinged feet, and his regular, temperate habits gave him physical strength and endurance in all its perfection, which inspired his comrades, while his bravery and daring won the respect of the officers under whom he served. As one of the foremost in the famous "Dash for Khartoum," he was given the name of "Deli-Dervish Ted." After he returned to England, and in the autumn of 1889, he was attacked by an enemy that possibly he made while exposed in the Soudan, that crept unawares (in the dark) upon him and threatened his life. He says: "I had been suffering from a sore throat, for which my doctor treated me four or five days, and this was followed by severe sickness, which troubled me a fortnight. • • Then came stiffness and swelling of the eyelids, quickly fol-

My doctor failing, and telling the wife there was no hope of curing me, her doctor was consulted. Still no improvement. One of the leading London hospitals examined me, and diagnosed 'Bright's disease.'

"A friend urged me to try Warner's 'Safe' Cure. The first doses brought on a profuse perspiration that four months of previous treatment had failed to do. From that time the albumen and dropsical swelling gradually disappeared.

My strength returned, and in a short time I was able to get about, and after taking seventeen bottles all symptoms of my terrible ailment were entirely gone. My cure was complete and permanent, as seven years have elapsed, and I have not had a day's illness since that time. I believe in honest testimony, and that is why I give this one. HOCKEY.

THREE AND A HALF HOUR GAME. Morrisburg, Ont., Feb. 6.-Cornwall and Iroquois met here last night on neutral ice, as ordered by the O. H. A., to play off their tie. Cornwall won by 6 goals to 4, outgeneraling Iroquois from the very start. The game lasted just three hours and a half, and was of the roughest kind. H. G. Myers, of Osgoode Hall, had the order of Secretary Beaton to referee the game, and though his work was subjected to some very adverse criticism, it is doubtful if ever a referee stepped on ice who had such a task as his was. During the first half a number of accidents occurred. Percival was badly injured, and although he was plucky and tried hard to play, he had to quit. About this time Larocque, of Iroquois got a smash in the face, and retired with Percival, Coulter, of Iroquois, got a body check, and when picked up shoulder-blade was found to be broken. Tobin went off to even things up. Here it was evident that a mis-take had been made in not putting on spare men, as, with five on a side on a 200-foot rink it is impossible to play any kind of hockey. For 40 minutes there was sometimes four a side, sometimes three, and once only five in all.

Toronto, Feb. 6 .- The Simcoes, of Toronto, beat Preston by 6 to 1 in the O. H. A. junior series tonight. PETER BRENNANS WON.

THE JUNIORS.

The Disturbers and Peter Brennans, two reams from the Orient Club, chased the rubber up and down the Jubilee rink Monday night, shortly after 10:30 for about an hour, and when Referee W. Ashplant gave notice that the game was at an end, the Disturbers were the undisputed possessors of the short end of a 7 to 0 score. Manager Denny Connors will stack the Disturbers up against the Knockers, also an Orient aggregation, Friday evening next, at 10:30, on the Jubilee ice. The players of both teams in Monday night's argument worked so hard that an individual mention of any one player would be unfair. Frank Harris and T. Porter acted as goal judges. The Peter Brennans have now won two of a series of six games that are being played with the Knockers and Disturbers.

A CHALLENGE. To the Sporting Editor of The Adver-

The management of the Watford hockey club have been endeavoring to secure a return match from the Glencoe team, but all efforts have failed, and the following propositions are submitted for the sportsmen of that town: 1. Watford will play on the Glencoe rink for a guarantee of $15. 2. Watford will guarantee Glencoe $15 to play on Watford rink.

3. Watford will play Glenicoe on Petrolia rink. Each club to pay our own expenses. Non-interference by crowd to be guaranteed by local club. Outside referee to be selected.

Hoping to get a prompt response to these proposals. Address Manager, Watford hockey club.

GRIFFITH'S FALL. Chicago, Feb. 6.—Albert Griffiths, better known as "Young Griffo," the pugilist, is a prisoner. He was arrested for creating a disturbance. An effort is being made by his friends and the police to send him to Australia, where he came from saveral years where he came from several years ago. Last summer, when he was thought to be slightly demented, he was sent to Dunning, where he was cared for until two months ago, when he was pronounced well, and was re-leased. He had regained some of his old-time form and eleverness in the ring, and fought with "Jack" Lewis and Young Kenny, two well-known fighters, and won both battles. Later

UNITED IRISH NATIONALISTS

Choose John Redmond as Their Chairman.

An Abandoned Steamer Towed Into Port-British Army Prestige.

London, Feb. 7.—John Redmond, the Parnellite leader, was unanimously elected chairman of the United Irish Nationalist party, at a meeting held in a committee room of the House of Commons, 60 members being present. Mr. Redmond, upon taking the chair, returned his thanks for the honor conferred on him and expressed the oning ferred on him, and expressed the opinion that all Nationalists in Ireland, America or elsewhere, would be rejoiced at the day's work, which he declared bound all sections of the party for Ireland's good, and which, he hoped, would reunite Irishmen everywhere in the fight for Ireland's rights. A voice in the fight for Ireland's rights. A vote of thanks was then given to Mr. Timothy Harrington for his success in restoring unity among the Nationalists. Mr. Redmond was the recipient of a multitude of congratulations.

BRITISH ARMY PRESTIGE.

Berlin, Feb. 7.-Lieut.-Col. Both privates and officers have behaved with the utmost bravery in action, as the lists of the dead and wounded show."

THE CLAYTON-BULWER TREATY. London, Feb. 7 .- The Daily News, commenting on the Clayton-Bulwer treaty, says that England has re-nounced control without getting anything in return. Something might have been asked for Canada or ourselves. The Morning Standard says that Britain gets nothing in the shape of a quid pro quo, either in Alaska or elsewhere, and we must assume that further information will modify this view of the matter.

BYE-ELECTION IN ENGLAND. London, Feb. 7.-The election in York city for a successor in the House of Commons to Rear-Admiral Lord Chas. Beresford, recently appointed to the command of the second division of the British Mediterranean fleet, resulted as follows: Mr. George Faber (Unionist), 6,248; Mr. Murray (Liberal), 4,818; Mr. Faber's majority, 1,430. The morning papers say that the result signifies that, in a grave national crisis, the first duty of politicians is to present a united front, and that where a candidate takes up an ambiguous position, he must expect to be badly beaten.

HON. EDWARD BLAKE

On the Unity Proposals-He States His Views on the Subject in a Letter to the Freeman's Journal-Of Interest to Canadians.

The Freeman's Journal, an influential Irish paper, publishes the following letter from Hon. Edward Blake, which will no doubt interest many Canadians who indorse the attitude he has taken on this question: Editor of the Freeman's Journal: Sir,—Those of us who had been driven to the conclusion that parliamentary leaders were not disposed to real conciliation and general reunion should be glad to see that the proposed performance of a small committee has been abandoned, that the attitude of ignoring or declining the proposals of the majority has been reversed, and that some acceptance has at last been vouchsafed of that most liberal basis which we long ago presented, and of our request for a general conference with a view to a reunion on its lines. No ampler vindication of the policy of the majority could be desired. The acceptance, indeed, if not grudging is, at any rate, limited. It sug-gests that the plan is not exhaustive, and that it diminishes rather than eliminates the difference between the sections. These deficiences, however, remain undisclosed, and they are, I presume, intended to be brought up in conference. Some temporary arrangement for provisional concert during next session has also been foreshadow-

With this latter idea I have, as you know, little sympathy; both reason and experience have proved its fu-'As to the larger question, I must speak frankly. I deeply regret that our offers were not earlier and otherwise acepted. Since they were made many things have happened, and I am constrained to the conclusion that the change of attitude is due to the course and pressure of events, not in Africa, but in Ireland, where the spread of the United Irish League is fast settling the question of reunion. The parliamentary sections, alas! through the indisposition of some and the failure of the rest to procure agreement, now stand so far discredited that their action is of little moment for good. They can no longer assume to lead; they must be content to follow the existing popular movement

To that movement I, at any rate have for many months stood publicly committed. Under it my country has become once again organized and united, and it has been enthusiastically indorsed by the greatest gathering in Longford for twenty years.

I, then, could be no party to any act that might thwart the work of the league. To do so weall, in my judgment, be to throw away the greater for the infinitely lesser chance of re-union.

I prefer, however, to assume that the present change, which I have attributed to the league, involves a recognition of, rather than an attack on, that organization. I assume also that no departure will be made from the custom of the last two conferences, to admit the press. I am convinced that we should have no secrets from the people at this time in this matter. On these assumptions I propose to attend the assumptions I propose to attend the conference and to do what little I can towards the recognition, even at this eleventh hour, of the popular demand for genuine reunion. Yours faithfully, EDWARD BLAKE.

B.B.B.A Great Healer.

If you've never applied Burdock Blood Bitters to a cut or wound, sore or ulcer, just try it and see what soothing, healing, cleansing power it possesses.

It takes out itching, stinging and burning, and promotes the growth of healthyflesh. So, too, when taken internally, by its power of eliminating all impurities from the blood and making that vital fluid rich, red and pure, it cuts off the origin and source of the foul matter that goes to make boils, pimples, sores, ulcers, eruptions, cancers, tumors and the like, and at the same time the purified and enriched blood creates healthy tissue where there was formerly, perhaps, a suppurating sore.

Mrs. J. H. Davies, Sydney, Man., writes: "I used Burdock Blood Bitters for a running sore on my ankle, which began to spread until I could hardly walk. I applied some of the B.B.B. to the sore as well as took it internally, and by the time I had finished two bottles the sore had healed up and my ankle got perfectly well.
