London, Tuesday, Nov. 3.

Very little can be said of the market held here today, as with the exception of hay, oats and potatoes there was very little other farm produce offered—in fact, there was not enough in any one line to warrant a change in prices. Grain-There were about a dozen loads of oats offered, which went at $5c to $7e per cental. Several loads of wheat went at $1 30 per cental. One load of peas sold at $1 per cental. Hay and Straw-Although there were 25 loads of hay on the stand, sales were fairly brisk at $7 to $9 per ton. Several Butter and Eggs-There was very little in and prices were unchanged.

Potatoes—There were about 10 large loads and a few small lots offered; sales were slow at 75c to 80c per bag.

Apples were dull, at prices quoted.

Very little poultry offered, and prices were steady Dressed Hogs-There were about 40 car-cases offered, selling mostly at $750 and $7.60 per 100 pounds. Butchers' Meats—Very little offered, and sales were slow at prices quoted. GRAIN, PER BUSHEL.

The milk wagons, however, have not all the preference just now, for a second laundry rig was struck an hour later in front of The Advertiser building. The car, No. 54, was an east-bound, on the Dundas and Rectory line, and the victim was the wagon of Charlie Hing. The horse had been left standing on the north side of the street, and attemptthem regular visits, placed their home ed to turn, without Hing, as the car came
