Detroit, Aug. 19.-When Ed. Walsh handed the Tigers a shut-out yesterday, 2 to 0 was the score, thereby knocking them down into third place, Blankenship, Murphy; stolen bases, base on errors, Boston 1; double plays, he made the tactical mistake of his Murphy, Oldring; double play, Plank Kleinow, Laporte and Knight, McConseason for the man who worked harder Washington 6, Philadelphia 11; first on by Wilson 3; bases on balls, off Wood than them all a year ago, and, with Groom 1; struck out, by Groom 2, by Wood 1 (Engle); passed ball, Sweeney the Sox hopelessly out of the flag hunt, Plank 2; passed ball, Livingstone; time, 1:48; umpires, Perrine and Sher It looked like a good fall in which to time, 1:50; umpires, Egan and Evans stall and save one's self. Officially Walsh's arm was not in good condition, and he had pitched but one game since his club left Chicago for the east. In addition to the lameness, he has never been better than intermittent- And Larry Lajoie Gets Big Ovatio ly invincible against the Detroit club. But there seemed to be nothing the matter with his arm yesterday, and the ancient Detroit hoodoo did not hang over him. In fact, he had the only break in the luck that affected the outcome of the game. So it looks bunched four hits in the second innir like steady work for him from now on.

The Team's Chances. There never was a chance, the way ing the remainder of the game. it was hitting-or not hitting-for the Tigers to win this one, but they might have gone into overtime with a 1 to 1 ger of the team last night, was given a score, but for one little slip—failure ovation each time he appeared at ba to handle a bunt in the first inning- He directed the team today, as his suc that started the Sox scoring. Ewing's Low Pitch Following Series of Fumbles and a Sacrifice, Lets in Sheckard

Chicago, Aug. 18.—Chicago won today in the ninth inning on Ewing's wildness and a wild throw. Sheckard, first up, walked. Schulte sacrificed. Chance was safe on Huggins' high throw, and Steinfeldt fanned. Then, with two out, Ewing made a very low pitch on which Sheckard scored.

Cincinnati had a man on third with only one out in two innings and again
