REFUSE OPINION ON BRANTFORD PROBE

Magistrate Livingston and Chief Slemin Decline to Comment on Gregory Report.

JUDGE HARDY ILL IN BED

Dr. Hutton Issues Monthly State-ment on Health of School Children.

Special to London Advertiser. BRANTFORD, April 6 .- When interview this afternoon, Magistrate Livingston and Chief of Police Slemin declined to make any comment on the report of Commissioner W. D Gregory, as made to the attorneygeneral on the probe of the police department and the administration of justice in this city. His honor Judge A. D. Hardy is confined to his bed, and it was impossible for him to be interviewed. His Worship Mayor C. J. Parker, when interviewed, said: "The report has not come before me officially, and it would be improper for me to express I have received the report and submitted it to the municipal council.

"I may say, however, that as soon as I receive the report it will be placed before the council for im-mediate action."

Chief Slemin, Inspector of Detectives Chapman, Detective Schuler and Constable Stewart, and will also have to act in the matter in this respect, it is expected, with regard to the position of Chief Slemin.
