STANDARD EXCHANGE

Canadian Press Despatch. Toronto, Oct. 20.—A mixed tone Toronto, Oct. 20.—A mixed tone and light trading marked this morning's dull session of the Standard mining exchange. The silvers were weak, but the golds not wholly so, though the market as a whole could not be called firm. Tough-Oakes lost a point and a half at 50½, and Canadian Lorrain one at 61. Argonaut was a point up at 31.

Other changes were fractional.

Eulogizes Former Chieftain's Devotion to Canada at Vancouver Banquet.

Canadian Press Despatch. Mackenzie King addressed a luncheon gathering of 450 on Saturday under the auspices of the combined Laurier and Ladra and Ladr and Lady Laurier clubs of Vancouver. The late Sir Wilfrid Laurier's love of freedom, and his devotion to the cause of a united Canada was the burden of the premier's speech.

In accordance with his ideal of unity, said Mr. King, the great chieftain had believed a single railway.

RODNEY ASSAULT CASE IS ADJOURNED FOR WEEK

The care of Bert Stoddard of Rodrey, charged with assaulting William Armstrong, Newbury, causing actual bodily harm, scheduled for trial at Glencoe this afternoon, has been adjourned a week owing to the fact that Crown Attorney Albert M. Judd would be unable to be present.

The case will likely be the first one to be tried by County Magistrate Zapfe of Parkhill, who was appointed to the bench several weeks ago. Stoddard, it is alleged, was one of the party that assaulted Armstrong at Wardsville, following a dance there August. Information against the in August. Information against the Rodney man was laid by Armstrong's father, the warrant being executed by High Constable Wharton.

Montreal, Oct. 20.—A jump of 3¾ oct. 20 canadian Press Despatch.

Montreal, Oct. 20.—A jump of 3¾ oct. Oct. Nov. Dec. May. The buying of these shares, which was the most active, is attributed to new hope on the part of traders regarding dividend action. Steamships common was up 7½ to 15.

Next in activity came Alcohol, which closed fractionally off at 44¼. Paper stocks were quiet, a half-point decline in Spanish River to 192½ being the only move worth mentioning. Textile, which provided a surprise by its three point jump on Saturday, sold fractionally easier at the close today around 65, after touching a new high on the present movement at 65%.
