

The ADVERTISER'S PICTORIAL PAGE

This two-year-old child prefers a six-foot Mexican bull snake to ordinary children's toys. He is the son of a herb doctor who uses these poisonous reptiles in his work.

There was a general mix-up in the basket race when the street traders of London held their annual sport day at Herne Hill.

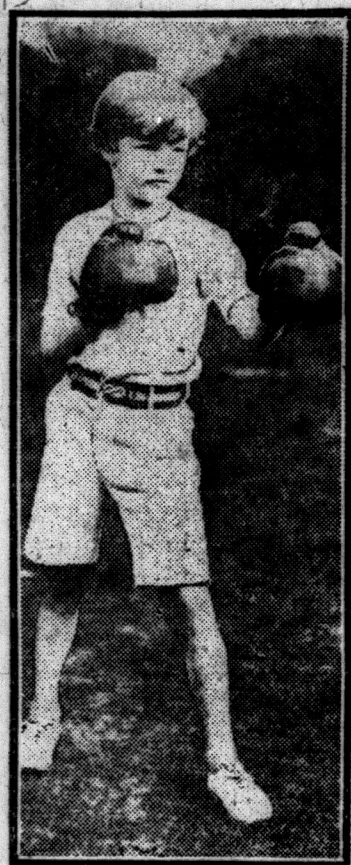

When it was discovered that this church needed a coat of paint, the congregation, headed by its pastor, turned out with paint and brush and gave it a swabbing that will long be remembered.

Meet "Captain Jiggs". A football team's mascot, smiles from the sidelines. To a degree he throws a scare into the opponents in their football matches.

Lieutenant-Governor Harry Cockshutt of Ontario photographed during the recent visit of Right Hon. David Lloyd George and his party at the Government House, Toronto.

The youngest boxing peer in England is Marquis Townshend, who is being instructed in the noble art of self-defense. The youngster has proven himself an apt pupil.

This is a case where the rabbit proved too fleet-footed for its pursuers and won the race for the bushes. The photograph was taken at a coursing club in England.

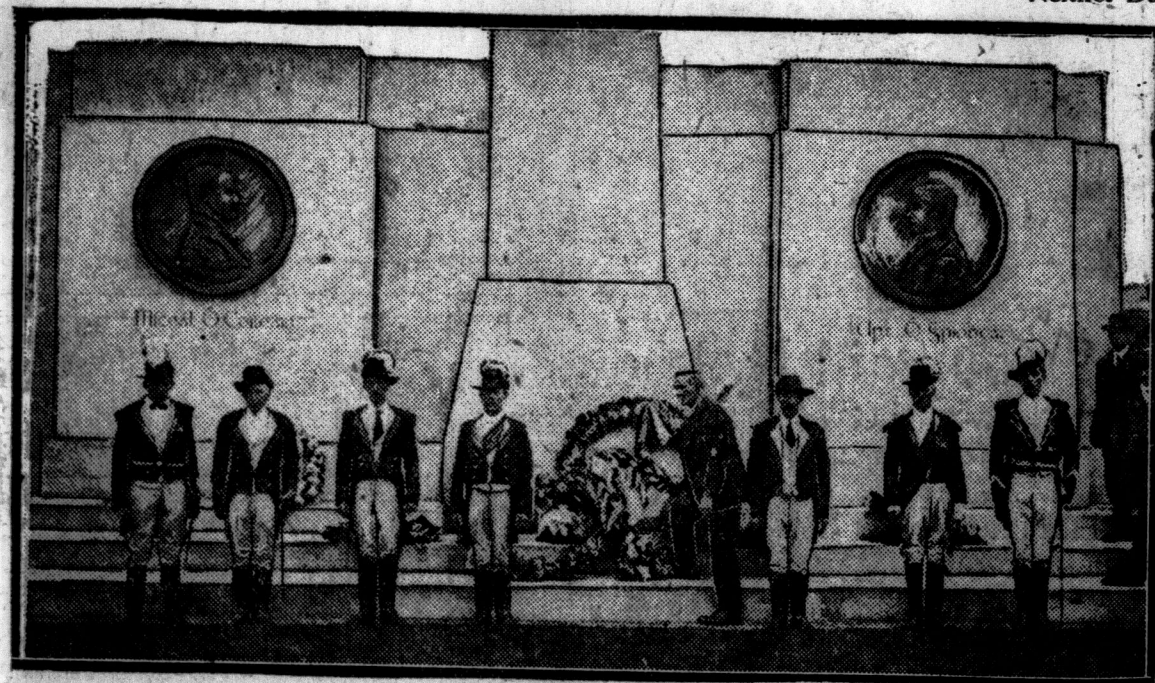

Britain's wartime premier, his wife and daughter were interested spectators of Niagara Falls. Neither Dame Margaret nor Miss Megan had ever seen this wonder of the world before.

This model for winter evening wear is made of chiffon velvet and attractively embroidered in chenille. The bottoms of the drapes are woven.

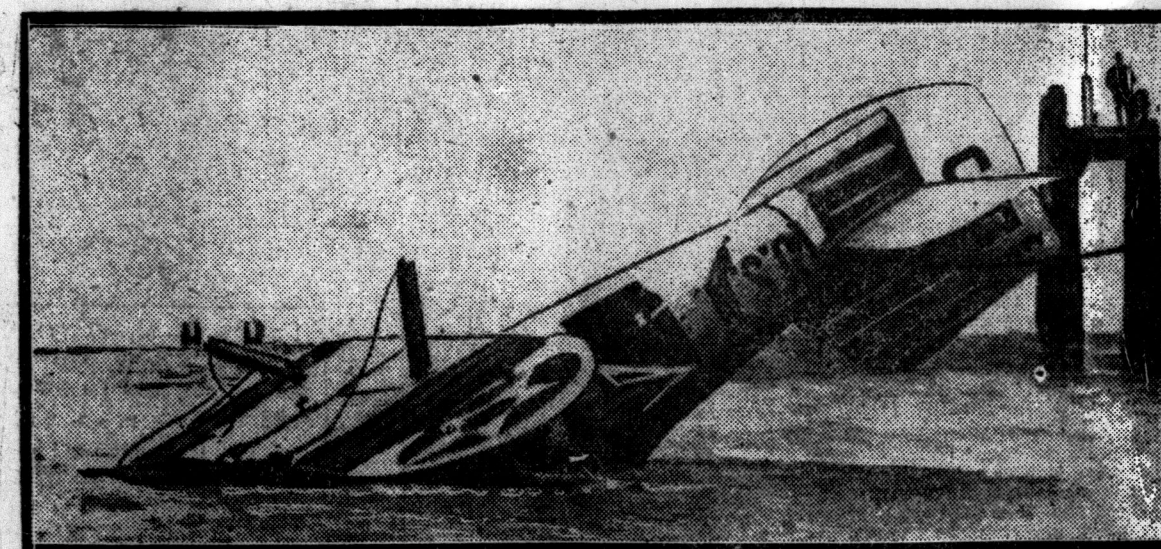

Despite the statement that America has no genuine Rembrandt, leading art experts have never questioned the authenticity of the Rembrandt which belongs to Mr. Frank P. Wood of Toronto.

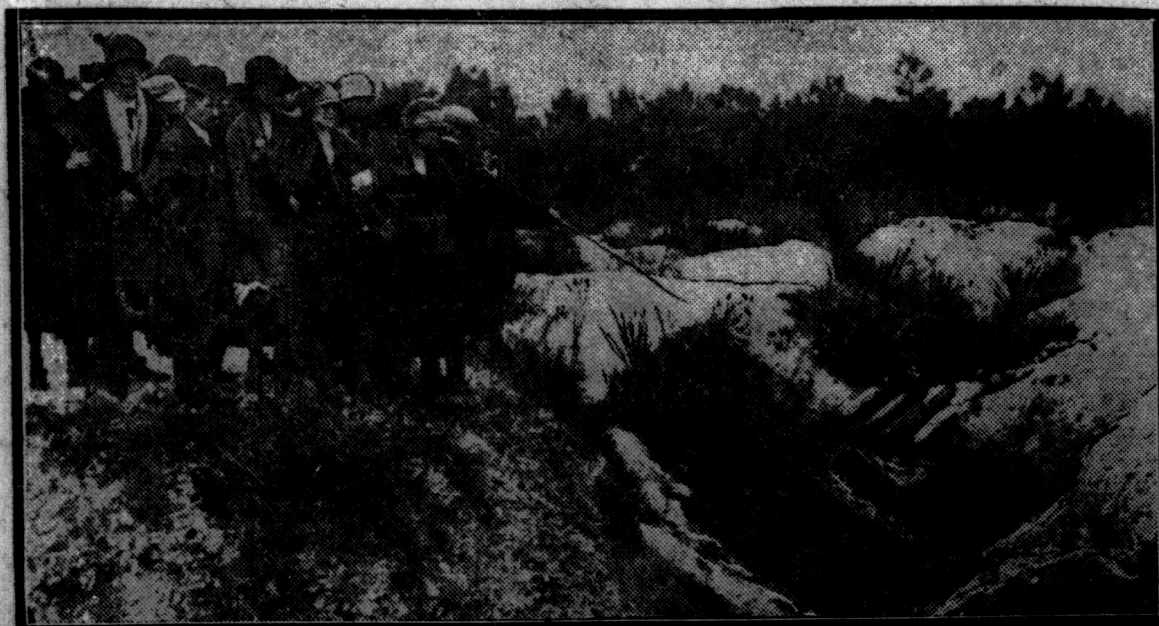

The Irish National Foresters laid a wreath on the cenotaph in Dublin erected in memory of the late General Collins and Mr. Arthur Griffith. The guard of rangers added a picturesque note to the ceremony.

For the first time in history, it is said, a bottlenose whale has been photographed. The rare fish, weighing about five tons, and twenty-three feet in length, was caught on the Atlantic coast.

The pilot escaped injury after crashing into the sea. This American seaplane was the favorite for the Schneider Cup race at Cowes, Isle of Wight, England.

The guide is pointing out to these spectators where some of the fiercest fighting took place at Bois de Ville in France. Time has wiped away many of the grim traces of battle.

John Drinkwater, famous author and playwright, and his wife, snapped a short time ago when the two were supposedly happily married. News has come that Mrs. Drinkwater is seeking divorce.

After the southern possum has been treed, in a hunt, it is another matter to get him down. These young ladies, at least, have found a new method for carrying him home.

It is easy for those with bobbed locks to be in fashion, for the newest decree is that wigs matching your gowns are to be worn on formal and informal occasions.