In Chambers yesterday, Mr. Justice Crease, on application of Mr. Aikman for defendant, in the case of Marshall v. Eckersly, made an order by consent for leave to deliver interrogatories; Mr. Powell for plaintiff. In the case of Reid v. Copeland, an order was made to vest in the Registrar, on application of Mr. Eberts, Q.C., on behalf of Archibald and Elizabeth Reid. Mr. Belyea and Mr. Luxton for the other parties.

The case of Cooley et al. v. Fitzstubbs was up in Chambers again yesterday on a motion on behalf of the defendant to add as co-defendants to the action a number of parties who it is claimed were interested in the property sought to be acquired. These parties are the ones to whom it is alleged the mining property was granted and leased, viz: E Crow Baker, E M. Johnson, L B. Hamlin, A E. McCallum, and A. C. Jefferies. The case was argued at some length, after which the further hearing of the application was adjourned until this morning at 10.30, before Mr. Justice Crease.
