GEORGE CARROLL WAS DROWNED

In Swimming at Newcastle When Fatality Occurred—Body Brought Here.

A sad drowning fatality occurred at Newcastle Tuesday night by which Mr. George Carroll of Campbellton lost his life. Full particulars of the sad affair have not as yet been received here, the only information at present being that the unfortunate man was drowned while in swimming. The remains arrived here on the noon train from Newcastle and will be taken to Matapedia tomorrow morning for burial.

The late Mr. Carroll whose parents have passed away, was a native of Irishtown, Bonventure Co., but for years has made his home in Campbellton, up to two years ago acting as night clerk at the St. Louis, when he resigned that position to accept a position on the C. G. R. as brakeman. For sometime past he has been braking in the railway yard at Newcastle. He was about 25 years of age.

GUY-ANDERSON.

(St. John Globe, July 14.)

St. Andrew's church, this evening, will be the scene of one of the most popular weddings of the year, when at nine o'clock Miss Louise, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. R. H. Anderson, 36 Queen Square, will be united in marriage with Thomas Guy, manager of the Bank of Montreal on Haymarket Street. The ceremony will be performed by Rev. J. S. Sutherland, Fredericton, assisted by Rev. F. S. Dowling, and the bride will be given away by her father. The bride's costume is white satin, embroidered with silver and crystal beads and a veil embroidered with seed pearls and orange blossoms, and she will carry a shower bouquet of roses. Miss Jean Anderson, maid of honor, will wear gold velvet and a black hat and carry a bouquet of crimson roses. The bridesmaids, Miss Agnes Anderson and Miss Katherine Brown, Chatham, will be attired in white silk with gold trimmings and gold lace hats and will carry gilt staffs with bows of tulle, and bouquets of buttercups and daisies. Another beautiful dress is that of the train-bearer, Miss Constance Mullin, a Kate Greenaway costume of point d'esprit. George Roberts will support the groom. Victor Crosby, John Moore, Leslie Peters and Rob-Anderson will be ushers.

The choir will sing "The Voice that Breathed o'er Eden," as the bridal party enter the church, and Mrs. L. LeLacheur will sing "Because" and as they leave, Miss Megarrity, the organist, will play Mendelssohn's Wedding March.

The church is beautiful decorated with daisies, buttercups, palms and ferns and a bell of daisies and buttercups has been erected.

After a reception at the home of the bride's parents, the happy couple will leave for P. E. Island for their honeymoon. On their return they will reside at 24 Pitt street. A great number of beautiful and costly presents have been received, including a case of communiy silver from the congregation and choir of St. Andrew's church and a beautiful china dish from the Ladies' Aid of the same church. Among the out-of-town guests to be present at the wedding are: Mr. and Mrs. R. S. Murray, Schnecady, N. Y.; Mrs. W. H. Tapper and Mrs. R. Huthison, Brookline, Mass; Mr. and Mrs. F. H. McNaught, Miss Katherine, Miss Isobel and Alexander Brown, and Miss Lillian Snowball, Chatham; Miss Marjorie Forsyth, Miss Marion Haddow, and Miss Elizabeth McDonald, Toronto; and Miss Florence Hickson and Miss Louis Manny, Newcastle.

RESTIGOUCHE AMONG "DRYS"

Chairman of Committee Thanks All Who Help Make Victory Assured.

The Committee, who had the general oversight of matters in connection with the Referendum in the Town of Campbellton, more particularly and in the County generally, beg leave to extend their warmest thanks to the many persons who so kindly assisted them in their efforts to bring out the vote.

While thanking all for the part they had taken, we congratulate you upon the magnificent vote in the Town of Campbellton and for the very good vote for the whole County. Much praise is due to the citizens, more particularly the ladies who so diligently worked on the day of the election.

I am sure that all are proud to know that Restigouche County is not behind hand in any moral work and notwithstanding the fact that some of the wise men of the Province ascribed to Restigouche County a position among the "Wets." We are glad to again show that we do not permit ourselves and will not be classed amongst the laggers.

On behalf of the committee, I have much pleasure in extending our thanks to all who so kindly assisted at this particular time and I am sure all are [redacted] with the result as shown [redacted].
