Five years ago, shy and lovely Blanche Esterly, with rare graces both of mind and person, had been the petted child of wealth and position.

Lovers she had plenty, friends so numerous she could not count them, till one day, by some sudden streak of fortune, her father became helplessly, irretrievably ruined by the failure of a large house with which he was connected.

Blanche Esterly had never looked upon a fairer winter's landscape. She went about her usual duties with a lighter heart than her usual, and then started for her employer's home with the garment she had finished the evening before.

It was not many blocks away, and when she arrived Mrs. Raymond sent for her to come up to her own room.

Without a moment's s hesitation she obeyed the summons and found Belle Raymond all impatience to try the fit of her mond all impatience to try the fit of her dress and see if it was becoming. After applying it for a few days I was enabled to remove the corn, root and branch—no pain whatever, and no inconvenience in using it. I can heartily recommend it to all suffering from corns."

What is Catarrh?

From the Mail (Can, Dec. 15.

Catarrh is a muco-purulent discharge caused by the presence and development of the vege table parasite amoebs in the internal lining memorane of the nose. This parasite is the simplest living form known that lives upon rgans and is only developed under favorable creumstances, and these are: Morbid state of the blood, as the blighted corpuscle of tubercle, the germ poison of syphilis, mercury. of the blood, as the blighted corpuscle of tubercle, the germ poison of syphilis, mercury toxomose, from the retention of the effets matter of the skin, suppression, perspiration badly ventilated sleeping apartments, and other poisons that are germinated in the blood. A HOME DRUGGIST TESTIFIES. Popularity at home is not always the best test of merit, but we point proudly to the fact that no other medicine has won for itself such universal approbation in its own city, state, and country, and among all people, as

Ayer's Sarsaparilla. The following letter from one of our best-known Massachusetts Druggists should be of interest to every sufferer:

RHEUMATISM. Had an attack of Rheumatism, so severe that I could not more from the bed, or dress, without help. I tried several remedies without much if any relief, until I took AYER'S ARRAPARILIA, by the use of two bottles of which I was completely cured. Have sold large quantities of your SARSAPARILLA, and it still retains its wenderful popularity. The many notable cures it has effected in this vicinity convince me that it is the best blood medicine ever offered to the public.
