A Gentlemen's Aid Society. McCaul-street Methodist Church last evening. The masculine element in this congregation has lately formed itself into an organisation for, active Christian work under the appellation of the "Gentlemen's Rid Society," and at the time mentioned they gave an inaugural tea and social. The attendance was large and those present evidently enjoyed themselves to the full. A supper was served in the schoolroom, at which a committee appointed from among the members of the society acted as waiters. An adjournment was then made to the church, where a literary program of unvarying excellence was rendered. Mr. Burns, organist of the church, played a selection in excellent style. Master Ernest Williams, a blind boy, recited "The Schoolboy's Reminiscence," displaying a marked amount of ability. The special feature of the entertainment was a reading given by Mr. C. Herbert Fielding, gold medalist of the Chicago Conservatory of Music and Oratory, entitled "Kissing Cup's Race." Several other artists, as well as a choir of male voices, assisted.

"If 300 cats can kill 300 rats in 300 days, how many cats will it take to kill 100 rats in 100 days?" A fined-toned upright plant will be given by THE QUEEN to the first person answering the above problem correctly; an elegent gold watch will be given for the second correct answer; a China dunner set will be given for the third correct answer, an elegant silk dress pattern will be given for the fourth correct answer, and many other valuable prizes. tern will be given for the fourth correct answer, and many other valuable prizes, all of which will be announced in the next issue of The Queen, As the object of offering these prizes is to attract attention to our popular family magazine, each person answering must enclose four three cent stamps for sample number containing full particulars. Send to-day. You may secure a valuable prize. $10 in gold will be paid for the best original problem to be published in a future number. Address The Canadian Queen, Toronto, Can.

first annual meeting in the Art Gallery, King-street west, on Tuesday evening next at 8 o'clock. This society is largely in its formative stages, but has already gained many earnest friends among the lovers of children, and has accomplished much good. At the meeting several very interesting addresses will be given and additional pleasure will be afforded by readings suitable to the occasion by Miss Wetherald and sougs by Messrs. H. M. Blight and T. D.
