CHRISTMAS TIME.

Christmas day comes but once year, yet it is safe to say that it brings more joy and sunlight to millions than any day of the year. The snow may be on the ground a foot deep, there may be lowering clouds, cold, icy winds which even nip the noses of the rich and wellclothed, and send the poor to the nearest refuge where there is a shelter from the icy blast, but the spirit of Christmas hospitality is not only on hand but abroad, and there is no one who cannot have a Christmas dinner and a pleasant time under certain conditions.

It is the day of charity and happiness, and what a great blessing the millions of the rich would accomplish if the owners would only put into practice the saying of the Nazerene that "it is more blessed to give than receive," and that other saying that has come down through the ages

There remaineth, these three, faith, hope, and charity." There are scores in every community who would be made happy by the gift of a little article.

In no other country in the world is the broad and generous intent of Christmas time so well observed as in Canada, and all ages enjoy it from the grey-haired patriarch to the tiny too who has just learned to walk and talk but who believes that Santa Claus is a benevolent reality and and wants to see him steal into her room and fill the stocking, till the eyes close in sleep, waiting, and then wakes up in the early morn to find that Santa Claus has come and gone, but the stocking is filled with good offering their time in council and drive the stocking and their time in council and drive the stocking is filled with good offering their time in council and drive the stocking and drive the stocking and drive the council of the council or some member for information than to resort to the columns of our much respected Guide-Advocate? Do not be a kicker. A word of encouragement would do more good as such communications as last week only keep good men from offering their time in council and drive. that Santa Claus has come and gone, but the stocking is filled with good things, everything she had desired and more than her most sanguine imagination had expected.

Christmas is eminently the children's day. From the gray of early dawn—it is the only day in winter when their eyes open at that hourto the latest hour at night, let every thing give way to the little autocrats whose tyranny is courted by every man and woman who has any of the essence of love in the breast. Romp and tumble and shout with them. When another Christmas comes some of them may not be here, and those that are will be one year further from "the royalty that doth so fittingly become them.' Christmas is for the children—let every thing bend to their enjoyment.

COMMUNICATIONS.

Seeing Double

Dear Sir:—The letter of Tuesday Shopper-un last week's paper is a libel on our fair town. There is no town of its size in Ontario where drunkeness is less prevalent than here and rowdyism is a thing almost unknown in our midst. Surely the hurry of Christimas shopping must have turned Tuesday Shopper temporarily "dippy," or he became intoxicated with the bargains he got and was "seeing double" before he got thome. EDITOR GUIDE-ADVOCATE :-

Dear Sir:—In last week's paper there appeared two communications, signed Tuesday Shopper and Tungsten. Tuesday Shopper says: "Is it not a disgrace the condition of our street crossings and rowdies and drunks all because we have policeman and not one cent lower the condition of our street crossings and rowdies and drunks all because we have no policeman and not one cent lower taxes." Such statements are misleading as our crossings are as well cleaned this year as any other year, under the circumstances, plenty of rain and snow, and there are no more rowdies and drunks on the street than any other year. There always has been plenty of law-breakers and always will be, policeman or not. The taxes are lower this year by one and 2/10 mills. The lowest application we had for policeman was $360 per year. Would that not raise the taxes? Tuesday Shopper says the only remedy is a change in council. Well, see this Friday evening that you are nominated and serve nine or ten years as I have dope, and I think you will come to the conclusion that it is much easier to find fault than to help manage municipal affairs.

and I think you will come to the conclusion that it is much easier to find fault than to help manage municipal affairs.

Stell Lighting.—Mr. Tungsten, the concract is not completed by any means.
M. Chambers put up the lights on Main street here and there as a make shift to furnish light this dark time until the new poles arrive, which are ordered, and no doubt will be here soon. Then Main street will have a light every 90 ft., equal rights to all, special favors to no one. I have every considence that Mr. Chambers will complete contract so as to be a credit to himself and this village. He has not received full ipay this year.
