

APPENDIX.

CHARLESTOWN, Jan. 10, 1799.

WE, whose names are subscribed, having been many years acquainted with Mrs. Hastings, formerly Mrs. Johnson, who was captivated by the Indians in this town in the year 1754, are willing to say in her favor, that we have ever considered her as a woman of veracity, and that she hath ever sustained a good character. Some of us were in town when she was captivated, and none of us have reason to disbelieve the statement of facts which she has given the public.

PFLER LABARRRE,
 THOMAS PUTNAM,
 MOSES WILLARD,
 WILLIAM HETWOOD,
 JOSEPH WILLARD,
 SYLVANUS HASTINGS,
 TIMOTHY PUTNAM,
 ABEL WALKER,
 SAMUEL WEATHERBE,
 SAMUEL TAYLOR,
 TIMOTHY CARLETON,
 OLIVER HASTINGS,
 JONATHAN BAKER,
 ELIJAH GROUT,
 DEMELL GROUT,
 BEZALEEL SHAW,
 SETH GROUT,
 WILLIAM GILBERT.

Present when Mrs. Hastings was captivated.