

OCTOBER

OCTOBER morning! how the sun
Glitters on glowing shock and sheaf,
On apple crisp with mellow gold,
On wonder-painted leaf.

October evening! look, the moon,
Like one in Fairyland benighted!
Out-doors Jack Frost bites sharp; within
Good! our first fire is lighted.

V. J. HUNT.