

ACADEMY

FOR THE

SONS of MERCHANTS, TRADESMEN, &c.

BY

MR. SHADGETT,

No. 24 Hope Street, near the Upper Town Market.

From London,

MR. SHADGETT purposes opening after the Midsummer Vacation a School, on his own account, for the Sons of Merchants, Tradesmen, &c.

Reading, Writing, English-Grammar, Arithmetic, Principles of Book-keeping, Elocution, Geography and General History at 2 Dollars per Month.

Latin, Greek, the Mathematics, Drawing and Dancing will be charged separately.

In order to give perfect satisfaction to Parents and ensure the comfort and advancement of the youth confided to his care, the number to be admitted will be limited. Those Parents who are desirous of having their Children instructed by Mr. S. are therefore requested to make early application.

The School will open on Monday, 6th August.

Quebec 1st July, 1821.

GRAZING AND REARING OF CATTLE.

THE Proprietor having from 200 to 300 pounds at command, would be happy to engage with any experienced Grazier possessing a like Capital, to undertake the purchasing and rearing of Live Stock for the Quebec Markets, and superintend and direct the management of a Grazing Farm.

Enquire at this Office.