Notices of Recent Publications.

THE CHILD'S BOOK ON SLAVERY; OR SLAVEBY MADE PLAIS. Cincinnati; American Reform Tract and Book Society. Sold at Depository of Religious Tract and Book Society Toronto.

The title of the Book indicates its object It is well written and well got up in every way. We trust it may be largely circulated among the young, and that the sentiments which it sets forth, may soon be found inflaencing the minds and conduct of the rising genera tion in the neighbouring States.

FARLES OF INFIDELITY AND FACTS OF FAITH. A Patheism, and Rationalism, by Robert Pat-terson: Cincinnati, American Reform Tract and Book Society. Sold at Depository of Religious Tract and Book Society Toronto.

This is a most seasonable and useful book, It is intended to meet those forms of infidelity which are so prevalent in our own day. For this purpose the old books on infidelity are unsuitable, in consequence of the novel positions which in the present times are taken up. We believe the circulation of this volume would do much good. The writer is well acquainted with the topics which he discusses, and writes in a direct, plain, and popular style. It is a book, which city Missionaries, and all who come in contact with the infidel notions which are so current in our day, should carefully study. It would aid them in meeting the cavils and objections which they may often hear.

Sr. Augustine; A Biographical Memoir: By the Rev. John Baillie. Author of "Life Stud-ies," &c. &c. New York; R. Carter & Bro. Sold by D. McLellan. Hamilton, and J. G. Geikie, Toronto.

The name and general views of Augustine are well known throughout the Christian Church. But comparatively little is known of
