THE business of the past week is reported as of an improved character, and fairly active for the time of the year, with more country orders than previously coming in.

PIG IRON—A fair consumptive demand, with reported sales of a lot of 50 tons No. 1 Summerlee, at $29, six months; and of lots of 5 and 10 tons, at $30, same terms. No. 4 is held at $26 to $28, with very little demand.

BAR IRON—For several sizes of rounds, which are very scarce, extreme rates would be paid; but other sizes of rounds and flats are less wanted, and prices are weak, though with no actual decline.

CUT NAILS—Are without change, and have no special inquiry.

TIN PLATES—Are selling rather more freely, though in small lots, at about quotations.

Chas. Ryland & Sons report as follows concerning the Pig Iron Trade of Scotland:—

"No important change either way has manifested itself during the past week in the Pig Iron Market. Prices generally have ruled in favour of buyers. On Wednesday the only transaction reported was 500 tons, at 54s. 4d., cash in fourteen days, closing, sellers, 54s. 3d., buyers, 54s. cash. The following were the quotations:—1½ Iron, Mixed Nos. Warrants 54s. to 54s. 3d.; No. 1, G M B, 54s. 6d. to 54s. 9d.; No. 3, 54s. to 54s. 3d.; Gartsherrie, No. 1, 56s.; Coltness, No. 1, 56s.; Glengarnock (at Ardrossan), No. 1, 61s. The shipments of the week are considerably under those of the corresponding week of last year. The market is still exceedingly quiet, and but little disposition to speculate is evinced. It is not supposed that the price of Pig Iron will go lower. The unfavourable state of the weather has contributed to impede trade affairs."

A recent English paper says:—"At the iron works there is no decided change for the better to note, but there are indications to lead to the hope that an improvement in the demand is not far distant. Two or three contracts have appeared in the market, and it is evident that buyers having capital at their command are beginning to see that the present is a most favourable opportunity for entering into engagements. Quotations are unusually low, and should the spring witness anything like a revival of trade, the probabilities are that prices will advance; hence the importance of placing contracts without delay, and while the market is so favourable to buyers. The opinion expressed in previous reports that Russia will be a large customer this year is confirmed by recent advices, and Italy will also require considerable supplies, but unfortunately her credit is bad. Since the commencement of the month, several cargoes have been cleared for the United States, and makers have confidence in the future of the trade with that country, provided no unnecessary restrictions are placed upon the development of American industry. Pig iron sells slowly, and prices have not improved. For tin plates there is a fair inquiry."

FLOUR—Receipts for the past week have been considerable and with consumption reduced to the lowest point by the high prices ruling the market for all kinds of breadstuffs has been very dull with an easier feeling at the close. Stocks are slowly increasing, still there is little or no anxiety on the part of holders to press sales, and prices of Supers may still be quoted at $7.25 to $7.35. In lower grades there are but few sales, Rye Flour being taken in preference on account of its comparative cheapness. Extras and Fancies are in small supply, and by retail command full prices. Bag Flour is in excess of the demand which in this article has also greatly fallen off, $3.40 to $3.50 will cover transactions for the week, closing dull at the inside rate.

WHEAT—There are no sales to report, stocks being in the hands of the millers.

OATS—Several parcels have been sold at different points along the line of railway at prices equal to a little more than a cent a bushel here.

They are thus sent direct to Portland for shipment to Britain and avoid the heavy charges of storage, &c. here.

PEAS—Continue without material change, 80c. 88c. per 60lb. is freely paid for May delivery, and 70 to 72c. at Hamilton or Toronto elevator.

OATMEAL—Is scarce and wanted; an advance on previous rates would be paid for a choice sample.

PORK—Remains without material change a small retail demand continues, which is met at about quotations. Most of the packers are however holding for the spring demand, the stock offering is very light, and holders are not pressing. HOGS—Arrivals since the beginning of the month, have continued to be within the requirements of the local and neighbouring trade, we have therefore to report a steady market, with a fair consumptive demand, and a consequent reduction of the stocks which had previously accumulated. The rapidly advancing stage of the season and unusually mild weather, making holders willing to meet buyers at reasonable rates, prices have therefore remained very steady within the range of $5.10 to $5.30 to cover all weights. In a few cases exceptional prices have been paid for choice parcels. Unless receipts should prove more abundant than they at present seem to promise, it is probable that the whole of the quantity on hand will be needed, and that a steady market may be looked for, for the rest of the season.

BUTTER—There has been rather more disposition to purchase manifested during the past fortnight, and several parcels have changed hands within the range of 10c. to 13c, buyers however, mostly restricting themselves to the best parcels they could secure, and shewing great unwillingness to take poor and stale parcels even at the lowest price quoted. Stocks are gradually working down, and it is not unlikely that a demand in the spring for the Lower ports, should any arise, may clear off the stock that for many months past has remained unsaleable. At the same time, stocks there are generally understood to be heavy, and the low prices in England, and cheap freights generally current, may induce some shipments from thence, in which case the outlet for a certain proportion of Canadian butter will be closed.

ASHES—Both sorts are dull and drooping. POTS—have receded to $5.85 for firsts, at which some shipments have been made to England, where prices show a margin of profit. PEARLS—are very quiet with few transactions to note.
