

FORT GARRY.—The Rev. G. Young writes, under date of October 25th :—"The French half-breeds have constituted themselves into an armed organized force to prevent Governor McDougall entering the Settlement ; or, at least, exacting from him certain stipulations in their favor impossible for him to give." This is an unwise course for any class to adopt, for certainly the Dominion Government will act impartially and justly with all parties who may present and substantiate their claims for special consideration. Although much excitement prevailed in the Settlement, and Mr. Young, under certain apprehended possible contingencies, anticipated "perilous times," yet the confidence placed in Governor McDougall's qualifications for his post, the assistance he will receive from the Hudson Bay Company, and the rallying to his protection of the more calm and thoughtful of the inhabitants, prevent us being much alarmed as to the result of such a commotion.
