Minard's Liniment cures La Grippe.

MISCELLANEOUS.

"I beg a thousand pardons for coming so late." "My dear sir," replied the lady, graciously, "no pardons are needed. You can never come too late."

The great value of Hood's Sarsaparilla as a remedy for catarrh is vouched for by thousands of people whom it has cured.

A fashion journal says "nothing will be worn this winter by the fair sex but longitudinal hose." An airy costume, truly for winter weather.

"Time brings strange reversals. There's poor old Henpeck, for instance who married his typewriter." "Well where does the reversal come in?" "Why, it was he who used to dictate."

Mothers will find the PAIN-KILLER invaluable in the nursery, and it should always be kept near a hand in case of accident. For pain in the breast take a little PAIN-KILLER in sweetened milk and water, bathing the breasts in it clear at the same time. If the milk passages are clogged, from cold, or other causes, bathing in the PAIN-KILLER will give immediate relief. Ask for the New Bottle.

Mamma (reprovingly, Sunday)—"You told me you were going to play church." Little Dick—"Yes'm." Mamma—"Then I'd like to know what all this loud laughing is about." Little Dick—"O that's all right. That's Dot and me. We'r the choir."

A man had a donkey for sale, and hearing that a friend wanted to buy one, he sent him the following written on a postal card: "Dear D—: If you are looking for an A1 donkey don't forget me. Yours, etc., F—."

To-DAY,—Hood's Sarsaparilla stands at the head in the medicine world, admired in prosperity and envied in merit by thousands of would-be competitors. It has a larger sale than any other medicine. Such success could not be won without positive merit.

Hood's Pills cure constipation by restoring the peristaltic action of the alimentary canal. They are the best family cathartic.

"The great problem that I have to deal with," said the keeper of the imbecile asylum, "is to find occupation for the people under my charge." "Why not set them to inventing college yells?" asked the visitor.

An old lady up in the Adirondacks, when asked if she heard the earthquake, answered, "Yes, I heard it, rather enjoyed it; for it is the first thing that has happened since I married Jeremiah that did not think I was to blame for!"

AN ENGLISH CHEMIST writes: "Brown's Bronchial Troches are most useful, and I never knew an article so universally well spoken of and gain such rapid notoriety before." Those who are suffering from Coughs, Colds, Hoarseness, Sore Throat, etc., should try them. Price 25cts. a box.

The most absent-minded men on record are the fellow who thought he had left his watch at home, and then took it out to see if he had time to go home and get it. And the man who put on his office door a card, saying, "Out, will be back soon," an don his return sat down on a stair step to wait for himself.

GREAT GAMES.—The great American game, Baseball, in the States, and the great English game, Cricket, in the Dominion, are in full career, and it is apropos to consider what a celebrated pitcher says: Mr. Louis Rush, 49 Preston St., Detroit, Mich., U. S. A., writes: "In pitching ball I sprained my arm; two applications of St. Jacobs Oil cured me." If you want to be ready for the next day, try it.

Literature certainly runs in the Green-smith family. The two daughters write poetry that nobody will print; the sons write plays that nobody will act; and the mother writes novels that nobody will read.

And what does the father write? Oh, he writes cheques that nobody will cash.

OLD NURSE-Y FAVORITES.

There was Tom, the Son of the Piper,
Jack Sprat, and Merry King Cole,
And the Three Wise Men of Gotham,
Who went to sea in a bowl;
The woman who rode on a broomstick,
And swept the cobwebbed sky,
And the boy who sat in the corner,
Eating his Christmas pie.

These were some of the old favorites, but they have been supplanted by the "Pansy" and "Chatter-box" stories, "Little Lord Fauntleroy," and "Five Little Peppers." The old fashioned pills and physics have been superseded, and wisely, too, by Pierce's Purgative Pellets, a mild, harmless and effective cathartic. They are pleasant to take—so gentle in their action that the most delicate child can take them, yet so effective that they will cure the most obstinate cases of constipation, stomach, liver and bowel troubles. They should be in every nursery. As a gentle laxative, only one for a dose.

The Khan, while reporting for the Hamilton "Spectator" was told to give a daisy report of a wedding, as 500 copies were ordered. He did it well saying: I had fully described the dresses, and told how charming the bridesmaids looked in skirts of corn colored silk. But the printer spoiled it all by using an 'h' for a 'k' in skirts. And the bride's father wouldn't buy a single copy.

A Great Head
—the one that saves hands and back by washing with Pearline. It's ahead of the old way in every way. Pearl-ine washes clothes or cleans house with half the labor. The most delicate fabric is washed safely; the roughest housework is done easily. Pearl-ine does away with the Rub, Rub, Rub. You can't do without Pearl-ine; you may do much work, but you'll never be done.

Beware Peddlers and some unscrupulous grocers will tell you "this is as good as" or "the same as Pearl-ine." IT'S FALSE! Pearl-ine is never peddled, and if your grocer sends you something in place of Pearl-ine, do the honest thing—send it back. 273 JAMES PYLE, N. Y.
