WHEN I AWAKE I AM STILL WITH THEE. DT AIRS. HARRIET BECORR STOWE

Still, still with Thee-when, ple morning broaked.
When the bird waketh, and the shadowafter, Fairer than morning forciles than the daylight, Pawns the aweer consciousness, Latra with Thee

Alone with Thee-amid the mystic shadows, The selemn hash of nature nonly born, Alone with Thee in breathless afforation, In the calm deward freshness of the morn.

As in the dayning, o'er the vaveless occan, The image of the morning arer Joth rest; So in this stillness. Thou beholdest only Thine image in the waters of my breast

Rem, still with Thee I as to such hear-born morning A fresh and solemn splendoratill ta given, 80 dath this blease I consciousness awaking Breathe, each day, mearness unto Thee and Heaven.

When sinks the soul, subdued by toll, to slumber, Its closing evo looks up to Thee in prayer, Sweetthe repose beneath thy wings o'ersheding. But sweeter still to wake and find Theo there.

So shall it be at last, in that bright vor: When the soul waketh, and life shat es fee; Oh I in that hour, fairer than daylight downing, Suali rise the glorious thought 'Lam with This.'

HOLLOWA'S OINTMENT. A MOST MINA-queous Cure of Bad Lkg: After 43 Years' Suppersings. Frient of a Letter from Mr. William Galpin, of 20 Saint Mary's Street, Weymouth, dated May 16th, 1834. To Professor Holloway.— Sir.—At the age of 18 my wife (who it we 61) caugho

To Professor Holloway.—

Sir.—At the age of 18 my wife (who it in 61) caughe a violent cold, which well-it in her legs, and ever since that time they have been more or less acre, and greatly inflamed.—Her agonies were districting, and far monthy together the was appricuentated to rest and sleep. Every concept that inclind mea advised was tried but withous effect; her health sufficed severily, and the state of her legs was terrible. Inactified rend your Advertisements, and advised her to try your I'lls and Omminit, and, as a last resource, after every other rends had proved use less, and comenied to do so. She commenced like weeks ago, and strange to relate, is now in good health. Her legs are painless without seam or sear, and her sleep sound and undisturbed. Could you have witnessed the sofferings of my will during the last 43 years, and contrast them with her present apportment of health, rep would indeed feel delighted in having been the means of so greatly alleviating the sufferings of a fellow creature.

To Professor Hollowny.—
Sir.—I was afflicted with a swelling on each side of my leg, rather above the knee, for nearly two years which increased to a great size. I had the advice of three eminent Surgeons here, and was an inmate of the Xeweustig Informars for four weeks. After various modes of treatment had been tried, I was direlarged as incumble. Having heard so much of your Pills and Oniment I determined to try them, and in less than a mouth I was completely cired What is more remarkable I was engaged theire hours a day in the flar Harvest and although I have followed my laborious occupation throughout the winter, I have had no return wintever of my complaint.
