OMNIA TUA DOMINE.

The earth is the Lord's and the fullness thereof, the world and they that dwell therein.—Ps. cxlv.—1.

The lofty mount, the swelling hills,
The sweeping flood, the limpid rills,
The mighty rock, the craggy steep,
The stallow lake, the ocean deep,
The tender leaf, the opening flower,
The zephyr's breath, the tempest's power,
The humble shrub, the lofty tree,
Belong, O God, alone to thee.

The grass that feeds the thousand herds,
The joyous song of summer birds,
The grain within the furrowed field,
By thine own blessed promise sown'd,
The bearded wheat, the waving rye,
The meadow green, the corn blade high,
The early fruit of bush and vine,
Before our eyes, O God, are thine

And all are thine who walk or fly,
On lowly vale or mountain high:
That in the earth their dwelling have,
Or dash along the mighty wave,
Who chirp at eve, and sing at morn,
The desert or the park adorn,
On flowery plain or burning sand,
Alike the creatures of Thy hand.

The love of kindred and of friends,
That all our path of life attends,
The social word, the laugh of glee,
The thoughts that flow forever free,
The hope, in death's dark house of doom,
That bears us on beyond the tomb,
With all that cheers as while we live,
Are thine, O God, alone to give.

—N. Y. Church Journal.

THY WILL BE DONE.

SEARCHER of hearts! from mine crase
All thoughts that should not be,
And in its deep recesses trace
My gratitude to Thee!

Hearer of prayer! O guide aright
Each word and act of mine,
Life's battles teach me how to fight,
And be the victory Thine.

Giver of all,—for every good
In the Redeemer came,—
For shelter, raiment, and for food,
I thank Thee in His name.

Father and Son and Holy Ghost,
The glorious three in One,
Thou knowest best what I need most,
And let Thy will be done.

HEALTH FOR A SHILLING!

HOLLOWAY'S PILLS.

EXTRAORDINARY CURE OF LOSS OF HEALTH, DISORDERED STOMACH, INDIGESTION AND DETERMINATION OF BLOOD TO THE HEAD.

Copy of a letter from Mr. John Lloyd of Kinnowen, near Harlech, Merionethshire.

To Professor HOLLOWAY,

SIR,—I avail myself of the first opportunity of informing you, that for a very long period I was afflicted with a dangerous giddiness and frequent swimnings in the head, attended by loss of appetite, disordered stomach, and generally impaired health. Every means had failed to give me any permanent relief, and at length it became so alarming that I was really afraid of going about without an attendant. In this melancholy condition I waited personally upon Mr. Hughes, Chemist, Harlech, for the purpose of consulting him as to what I had better do; he kindly recommended your Pills, I tried them without delay, and after taking them for a short time I am happy to bear testimony to their wonderful efficacy. I am now restored to perfect health, and enabled to resume my usual duties. You are at liberty to publish this letter in any way you may think proper. I am, sir, your obedient servant,
(Signed.) JOHN LLOYD.

MIRACULOUS CURE OF DROPSY.

Extract of a Letter from Edward Rowley, Esq. of Ind Walk, Tobago, dated April 8th, 1852

To Professor HOLLOWAY,

DEAR SIR—I deem it a duty I owe to you and the public at large to inform you of a most miraculous recovery from that arduous disease, DROPSY, and which, under God, was effected by your invaluable Pills. I was tapped five times within eight months, and skillfully treated by two medical practitioners, but could not get cured, until I had recourse to your remedy and notwithstanding all I had undergone, this miraculous medicine cured me in the course of six weeks.
(Signed.) EDWARD ROWLEY.

INFALLIBLE CURE OF A STOMACH COMPLAINT WITH INDIGESTION AND VIOLENT HEAD-ACHES.

Extract of a Letter from Mr. S. Gowen, Chemist, of Clifton near Bristol, dated July 14th, 1852.

To Professor HOLLOWAY,

DEAR SIR—I am requested by a Lady named Thomas just arrived from the West Indies, to acquaint you that for a period of eight years herself and family suffered from continual bad health, arising from disorders of the Liver and Stomach, indigestion, loss of Appetite, violent Head-aches, pains in the side, weakness and general debility, for which she consulted the most eminent men in the colony, but without any beneficial result; at last, she had recourse to your invaluable Pills, which in a very short time effected so great a change for the better, that she continued them, and the whole family were restored to health and strength. Further she desires me to say, that she has witnessed their extraordinary virtues in those complaints incidental to children, particularly in cases of Measles and Scarlatina, having effected positive cures of those diseases with no other remedy.
(Signed) S. GOWEN.

A DANGEROUS LIVER COMPLAINT AND SPASMS IN THE STOMACH EFFECTUALLY CURED.

Copy of a Letter from Mr. Bostock, Druggist, of Ashton under Lyne, dated July 31, 1852.

To Professor HOLLOWAY,

DEAR SIR—I have much pleasure in handing to you a testimonial of the efficacy of your Medicines. A person in this neighbourhood with whom I am well acquainted was afflicted for a long time with violent spasmodic pains in the stomach and liver, arising from frequent colic, sickness of pait, and the effects of a stooping position which he was obliged to assume in his business. The spasms were of an alarming character, and frequently left him in a weak and debilitated condition. At length he heard of the salutary effects of your invaluable Pills, and was induced to give them a trial. The first dose gave him considerable relief, and by following them up in accordance with your directions, they have acted so wonderfully in cleansing the liver and stomach, and strengthening the digestive organs that he has been restored to the enjoyment of good health. I remain, dear Sir, yours faithfully,
(Signed) WILLIAM BOSTOCK.

These celebrated Pills are wonderfully efficacious in the following complaints.
