COMMERCIAL. WEEKLY REVIEW - WHOLESALE PEICES.

As usual at this season of the year many of our city families are out of town and at our wholesale houses business is generally quiet in consequence. Activity continues to reign at the city factories and the prospects for a good fall trade were never better. We continue to note a quiet market for dry goods, travellers out in search of orders for the fall trade not having met with much encouragement as yet. . The "boom" in breadstuffs referred to last week has abated for the present and prices have slightly declined.
