TRIESTE, Nov. 12.—According to advices received here the Russians are making warlike preparations on the Caspian Sea.

GREECE. Greece has received her new King, and the telegraph naively announced that Athens was tranquil. How long that tranquility may last he would be a bold prophet who would venture to predict. The Greeks are now what they were in the days of Juvenol. They are neither truthful, honest, loyal, nor peaceable. Otho's throne was a bed of thorns; we stall see whether the conspirators and schemers, who overthrew the Eavarian, will make it a bed of roses for the Dane. Doubtless Otho's conscientious objection to conform to the Greek schism and adopt the Greek heresies tended to make him unpopular,
—whereas the free and easy Lutheran is troubled with ne such scruples, and will go to Mass and deny the filiogue as heartily as if he were 'to the manner born.' Still we confess we do not expect that the telegraph will always or for long convey the pleasing news that Athens is tranquil,—and it is extremely probable that the British Admiral in the Mediterranean, now that his mission to protect treason and fillibustering in Naples is ended, will find work enough on hand in suppressing rebellion and crusting treason in Greece. Meantime the Ionians kick strily against the terms of annexation proposed by Her Majesty's Government. They refuse point blank to give a drachma of the £10,000 a-year which they have been required to pay, not to Great Britain, but to their new King, as the price of their deliverance from British bondage and annexation to the King iom of Greece; while Turkey and Austria, and some of the other great Powers strongly object to the surrender of the fortress of Corfu to His Relienic Majesty. So that unfortunately, we have not got done with the Ionian Islands, and the Greek question is still extremely unsettled. - Weekly Register.

MURBAY & LANMAN'S FLORIDA WATER. - Poets may talk of 'gales from spley Araby,' but it may well be quessioned whether any cinnamon or orange grove ever sent up incense as refreshing as the per-fome of this floral essence. The atmosphere, which steale the fragrance from most toilet waters, seems to have little effect upon the exquierte aroma which belongs par execulence, to this refreshing preparation. It contains so to speak, the condensed breath of the most ederiferous blossoms of Tropical America and its fragrance seems inexhaustible even by long concontinued evaporation and diffusion. In this respect it resembles the original Farina Cologne, and its is preferred to thus more costly perfume in South America and the West Indies, where it is universally STRENGTH FOR THE EXHAUSTED. - Thousands die, as it were inch by inch, of bodily weakness; for debility will not kill as certainly, though not so quickly, as a rising fever. Is it asked how the weak shall be made strong; the debilitated sustained and re-stored; the exhausted re-filled with vital energy? We aver that of all invigorating preparations given by science to man, from the institution of the art of healing to the present hour, not one has wrought such wonders in the way of restoration, as HOSTET-TER'S CELEBRATED STOMACH BITTERS. This is indeed the tonic of tonics. As a re-vitalizing, strength-supporting, life-prolonging agent, the like of it is not to be found in the catalogue of medicines. Among the various articles used to arouse the dormant powers of nature, it stands alone—the great awakener of the paralyzed physique. It not only awakens the physical powers from a state of collapse and inanition, but it imparts permanent vigor to the muscular and nervous systems - reinforcing, as it were, both the stronghold and the outworks of vitality. The aged, the decrepid, the nervous, the broken-down of both sexes, are recommended to try it. They will assuredly find it a present help in time of trouble.

Messrs. Devins & Bolton, Druggists, next the Court-house, Montreal:

Dear Sirs,-When I began using BRISTOL'S SARSAP.ARILLA, Ihad been for nine months suffering with rheumatism, and had completely lost the use of my legs, being unable to walk during four months out of the nine. The first bottle of BRISTOL's SARSAPARILLA gave me great relief, and before I had finished seven bottles I was entirely free from pain, and able to walk as well as I ever could. You will confer a favor on many by making these facts public, which I shall be glad to confirm.

J. C. Ayer, M. D. Dear Sir I have a long time been afflicted with an exaption which covered my whole body, and suffered dreadfully with it. I tried the best medical advice in our city without any relief. Indeed, my disease grew worse in spite of all they could do for me. I was finally advised by one of our leading citizens to try your Sarsa-PARILLA, and after taking half a bottle only, I found that it had reached my complaint, and my health improved surprisingly. One single bottle completely cored me, and I am now as free from the complaint as any man in the world. Publish this, and let the af flicted know what you have done for me, and what may be done for their relief.

autumn and winter, with such insufferable itching as to render life almost insupportable. It has not failed to come upon her in cold weather, nor has any remedial aid been able to hesten its departure before spring, or at all alleviate her sufferings from it. This season it began in October with its usual violence, and by the advice of my physician I gave her your Sarsaparilli. In a week it had brought the humor out upon her skin worse than I had ever seen it before; but it soon began to disappear. The itching h & ceased, and the humor is now entirely gone, so that she is completely cared. This remarkable result was undoubtedly produced by your Sarsapakilla. Charles P. Gage, Esq., of the widely-known Gage, Murray & Co, manufacturers of enamelled papers in Nashua, N. H., writes to Dr.
