middle or east freights. In millfeed, no change has taken place. Oatmeal is steady at old prices. For grain, the prices remain the same as last week. The trade is dull owing to the holiday season and to the state of the roads in the country causing light receipts.

Groceries.—No change has taken place in the prices of sugars this week, and a better business has been done than for some time past. This remark is true as well of most general lines of groceries in which prices as a rule hold steady.

Provisions.—Butter is in good demand and the market is firm. Large rolls sell at 18 to 19c., and dairy tubs the same. Cheese is quiet and steady. Eggs are rather easier. Poultry has been selling at higher prices, turkeys fetching 14 to 15c., and geese 9½ to 10c. The receipts for Xmas have been inadequate. In hog products no change of prices has taken place.
