Combined Drill & Seeder

The Most Successful Combined Drill ever Made.

TRIED AND TRUE.

Spring Teeth for Seeding,
Spring Hoes for Drilling.

Strength & Solidity are insured by the use of a tubular iron frame and a solid steel axle, while at the same time the machine is light and simple. The wearing parts can be easily and quickly replaced if ever found necessary.

The draft is very light, because the point of draft is low and direct from the draw bars.

This machine is very easy to manipulate. It has special and valuable adjustments to be found on no other machine.
