

TOWARDS A RAPID REACTION CAPABILITY FOR THE UNITED NATIONS

V A Practical Agenda for Reform: The Short to Medium Term	36
Increasing the UN's Capabilities	36
The Political Level	37
Troop Contributors	37
Groups of Friends	39
Finances	39
The Strategic Level	43
Early Warning	43
Strengthening the UN Secretariat	44
Logistics	46
Standby Arrangements	47
The Operational Level	49
A UN Operational-Level Headquarters	50
The Vanguard Concept	51
The Tactical Level	52
The Availability of Personnel	52
Training	53
Towards a Vanguard Concept	54
VI A Vision of the Future: The Long-Term Prospect for Rapid Reaction	55
Balancing Pragmatism and Vision	55
Advanced Technologies for Peace Operations	56
Securing the Civilian Components of Rapid Reaction	58
A UN Standing Emergency Group	60
Financial Issues	63
VII Towards a Rapid-Reaction Capability: Conclusions	65
Conclusions	65
Recommendations	67
The Conduct of the Study: Acknowledgements	72
Endnotes	76