

PROJECTS

1998/1999

NATIONAL FORUM

Canada's Circumpolar Relations 1998

Whitehorse, Yellowknife, Iqaluit, Edmonton,
Quebec City

National Forum Report available on our website and in print

$135 000

United Nations and Human Security 1999

Vancouver, Montréal, Saint John

National Forum Report available on our website and in print in Fall 1999

$130 000

HUMAN RIGHTS AND THE INTERNET

International conference – Human Rights and the Internet
Montreal, September 1998

With the Canadian Human Rights Foundation (Montreal),
the Department of Foreign Affairs and International Trade (Human Rights Branch) (UNESCO, CIDA, Heritage, Justice and others)

$70 000

Virtual Conference – Human Rights and Internet,
(a follow-up to the Montréal Conference)

Black & White Communications

Ottawa, Ontario

$20 000

Roundtable –

Internet, New Technologies and Human Rights

The McLuhan Centre
University of Toronto

Toronto, Ontario

$10 000

Book – Human Rights and Internet

Steve Hick

Carleton University

Ottawa, Ontario

$10 000

THE FUTURE OF INTERNATIONAL RELATIONS

Conference – Shaping the Transatlantic Alliance for the 21st Century

Atlantic Council of Canada

Toronto, Ontario

$10 000

Conference – Impact of International Law on the Practice of Law in Canada

Canadian Council on International Law

Ottawa, Ontario

$15 000

Conference – Free Media and Peacebuilding
IMPACS

Vancouver, British Columbia

$15 000

Policy options paper – UN Security Council Sanctions

Barry Burciul

Toronto, Ontario

$13 250

Conference – Canada and the New World Order

Mt. Allison University

Sackville, New Brunswick

$10 000

Conference – Youth Speakers Forum on Canada's Foreign Policy

Speakers Forum

Cobourg, Ontario

$8 000

Discussion paper – Civil Society and State Summits, (APEC, NAFTA, G7)

John Hay

Nepean, Ontario

$5 000

Policy option papers – The role of the state in cultural industries in international trade agreements

Ivan Bernier

IQHEI, Université Laval

Québec, Québec

$10 000