

CONTENTS

1. Introduction
 - A. Political Agencies
 2. Dominions Office
 3. Channels of Communication
 4. The Prime Minister and the Department:
 - Mr. W.L. Mackenzie King, 1922-1930
 - Mr. R.B. Bennett, 1930-35
 - Mr. W.L. Mackenzie King, 1935-1948
 5. The Prime Minister's Office, 1929-1946
 6. Parliamentary Under-Secretaries of State for External Affairs, 1925-1948
 7. The Select Standing Committee on External Affairs
 - B. Department in Ottawa
 8. Dr. Oscar D. Skelton, I.S.O., Ph.D., Under-Secretary of State for External Affairs, 1925-1941.
 9. Loring C. Christie, after 1923
 10. Expansion of Department of External Affairs, 1925-1941.
 11. Language Specialization
 12. Premises
 13. Passport Office
 14. Departmental Organization
 15. Departmental Library
 16. Documents
 17. Diplomatic Uniforms
 - C. Representation Abroad
 18. Diplomatic Representation Abroad, from 1925
 19. Effect of Change of Government on Appointments
 20. Canadian Consular Service, 1940-1943
 21. Provincial Representation Abroad
 22. The Foreign Diplomatic Corps in Ottawa
 23. General Appraisal of the "Skelton Epoch"
- Appendix I. Parliament and External Affairs
- Appendix II. Separation of External Affairs Portfolio
- Bibliography