

Table of Contents

Foreword	4
Avant-propos	5
Introduction and Summary	6
Introduction et résumé	7
Conclusions and Proposals	8
Conclusions et propositions	12
Keynote Speech: Human Rights: How Can Canada Make a Difference?	13
Warren Allmand, International Centre for Human Rights and Democratic Development
1. Canada's Role in the Protection of Civil and Political Rights
Through the United Nations	22
Max Yalden, UN Committee on Human Rights
Through the Organization of American States	23
Robert Goldman, Inter-American Commission on Human Rights
2. Canada's Role in the Protection of Economic, Social and Cultural Rights
Trade and human rights	24
Stephen Benedict, Canadian Labour Congress
Development assistance	25
Gauri Sreenivasan, Canadian Council for International Cooperation
3. Constructive Engagement or Confrontation - Discussion Groups
Asia: Should Burma and China be treated similarly?	29
Fred Bild, former Canadian Ambassador to China, Thailand, Laos and Vietnam
Latin America: Promotion of a democratic Cuba	29
Mark Fried, Americas Programme in Democratic Rights, Oxfam Canada
Africa: The Commonwealth and Nigeria	30
Collins Babalola, Director, Common Cause Canada-Nigeria
Europe: The Yugoslav dilemma	33
John Graham, former Senior Elections Officer for OSCE in Bosnia
4. The Rights of Indigenous Peoples	34
Wayne Lord, Aboriginal and Circumpolar Affairs, DFAIT
5. Progress and Challenges in Human Rights	35
Kerry Buck, Human Rights Division, DFAIT
Index
The Group of 78	36
Le Groupe des 78	36