

Minister Regan paid tribute to the team effort of the various government departments who participated in bringing this project to the contract stage. The Departments of National Defence, External Affairs, Industry, Trade and Commerce/Regional Industrial Expansion, Supply and Services Canada, as well as the Canadian Commercial Corporation cooperated with DAF Indal and the U.S. Navy on this project.

Canadian Commercial Corporation, owned by the Government of Canada, contracts with foreign governments and international agencies on behalf of Canadian producers of goods and services. In 1981-82, the Corporation achieved sales of over $550 Million, involving 435 Canadian suppliers and more than 50 foreign customers.
