

maternity level, then take the entrance to school and the school child, etc. Of course, I think organized medical service is coming. There is no question of that.

DEAN FLEMING: Well, I noticed that, under recommendation

49, I have put a : That is, in school is the first opportunity to be had of getting these people without a house to house canvass? 39. I don't know how that is to be interpreted, but our feeling in general is that DEAN FLEMING: No, we have practically every infant with the child in school, the aim is to have the child under supervision.

properly fed at home. This could be read: "It should

DR. WOODHEAD: Of course, this Report only deals with the school child? col meals." I don't know if that implies school meals for all children. It looks that DEAN FLEMING: I am all in favor of the school children way, but, in a general way, our Christian work is to getting medical care that they require and I think this should be the part of the health service of the community and not the educational committee. recommendation 36, page 239 of the Report. Is our McGill University

: Of course, we are speaking of Greater Montreal. That paragraph is headed: "Greater Montreal". health education at McDonald College? This may not

MR. CURRIE: I wonder, if they have not missed something in not having the medical profession represented on the Board.

DEAN BRITTAIN: It is not for me either. The summer

DEAN BRITTAIN: That was suggested by someone. We merely lend facilities.

MR. CURRIE: They would be far more important than members of the Protestant clergy. there is such a course