

ARTICLE V.

HONORARY MEMBERS.

Honorary Members shall be chosen by the Trustees, from among men eminent for their services in science or art, and those who have rendered important services to this Society. The name must be proposed, at least, one month before being balloted for, by the Trustees, at which meeting ten Trustees must be present, of whom seven must be consenting, or a proportional majority, if a greater number be present. Honorary Members shall be entitled to all the privileges of the Society, except the right of voting at meetings.

ARTICLE VI.

ELECTION OF TRUSTEES.

The annual election of Trustees shall take place on the first Wednesday in March, in each and every year. The mode of conducting such election shall be as follows:—The Chair shall be taken at seven p.m., when the meeting shall choose two Scrutineers, who shall take charge of the ballot box, which shall be opened at half-past seven for the reception of votes. Each duly qualified member present (proxies not being admissible), shall then put into the ballot box a list of not more than twenty members, whom he thinks proper to be Trustees for the year, the twenty having the greatest number of votes shall be the Trustees,—the number of votes to be ascertained by the Scrutineers.—The ballot box shall be closed at nine p.m.

ARTICLE VII.

ELECTION OF OFFICERS.

The election of Officers shall take place annually, on the second Wednesday of March. At half-past seven p.m., the Chair shall be taken, and two Scrutineers shall be appointed by the meeting, to take charge of the ballot box, which shall be opened for the first ballot at eight p.m. The duly qualified members of the Society shall then proceed to vote for a President, first and second Vice-Presidents, a Treasurer, a Corresponding Secretary, a Recording Secretary, and an Honorary Librarian (each to be voted for separately in the order named), by writing the name of the individual preferred on a slip of paper and depositing it in the ballot box, each ballot to remain open for ten minutes, and the result to be ascertained by the Scrutineers before proceeding to the next. The Officers to be chosen from the twenty Trustees elected.