

- Before allowing pension to parents, proof usually required that son killed had assigned half his pay, 40
- Deduction from pension for pre-enlistment disability should not, except in exceptional cases, exceed ten per cent, 41, 50
- If man accepted for service, State should not later deny that he was fit, 41
- If medical record shows fitness on enlisting, the assessing later of any disability present at time of enlistment is very difficult, 45
- Pre-enlistment disability ratings vary greatly, 46
- Members of forces who have accepted final payment in lieu of pension should, upon complaint, be re-examined and, if disability continues, have pension restored, 51
- Commuted pensions should be restored, 53
- Commutation as regards pensions should be eliminated in future, 54
- Recommendation No. 9 (Amendment proposed to section 27 of Pensions Act), 155
- Recommendation No. 12 (Amendment proposed to section 51, ss. 5 of Pension Act), 155
- Recommendation No. 13 (Amendment proposed to section 51 of Pension Act), 155-6
- Recommendation No. 14 (Amendment proposed to section 51, ss. 1 of Pension Act), 156
- Pending cases before Exchequer Court, 156
- English procedure re marriage of pensioners, 194
- Criticism of soldiers' advisers; inadequate machinery and facilities; every avenue of information exhausted before bringing case to appeal, 316, 317
- Access to files at Headquarters; would facilitate to have possession of files; soldiers' advisers not allowed précis last four years; files not sent to districts; list prepared and sent to unit, 371, 372
- Access to files pertaining to all cases to be heard, 373
- Recommendations submitted re Soldiers' Adviser System, 390 (see Appendix No. 12)
- Amortization and reduction of interest, 530, 531
- BRAY, HARRY, The Canadian Legion in Toronto: Remarks on question of "onus of proof," adding that if by reason of length of service and nature of the service rendered, a man is suffering a disability, he should be given a pension by right and nothing should interfere with that right; organized associations of ex-service men maintain that the claims of applicants should be laid properly before the person or persons charged to rule upon them; facilities should be extended to have claimants' cases prepared for presentation; physically impossible under present facilities to have claims put in proper shape; official soldiers' advisers are doing splendid work, 29-30
- BROWN, CHARLES, The Amputations Association of the Great War: Explains purpose of amalgamation with the Canadian Legion, 20
- BROWNE, CAPTAIN E. WILKINSON, The Army and Navy Veterans: Suggestions to be made later re "onus of proof" question, 18-19—Widow with pension does not get benefit of Insurance Act; large percentage of men for whom Act was originally submitted not getting benefit; lien policy; many cases refused insurance; reasons for refusal; war disability and pre-war status; post-war disability, 405, 406, 407—Increase of insurance to $10,000; reasons for, 408—Announcement in House regarding soldiers' legislation; necessity for passing at present session, 408
- BURKE, MAJOR F. S.: Explains graphs showing numbers of pensioners now alive and their expectancy of life, 258-259—110,000 expected to be alive in 1957 of age 60 and over; 40 per cent of these to be eligible for allowances under Bill No. 19, 259, 260, 261—Expectancy figures checked by Insurance Department, by Department of Labour, and with Old Age Pensions data of New Zealand, Australia and British Columbia, 259—Amount to be expended at peak: $18,000,000, 260—Number of appointments of returned men by Civil Service Commission, to September, 1929, 261—Age of soldiers dying 20 years hence lower than that of civilians; Bill No. 19 to be amended to read "sixty years" and not "sixty-five years," 264
- CONROY, JOHN V., Soldiers' Adviser, Toronto: Qualification; experience; work done; number of appeals to Board; number disallowed; new evidence; cases withdrawn from Appeal Board when conceded by Pension Board Commissioners on production of new evidence; cases conceded without appeal to Federal Appeal Board; dependency; reinstatements, 357, 358, 359, 360—More co-ordination of work among soldiers' advisers suggested; travel, transportation charges and living expenses in securing evidence; reports, re filing same; calls upon salary; effect of enlargement of pension list, 361—Percentage of cases action taken on; pressure of work; assistance, 362—Evidence of pre-enlistment; good health; post-discharge condition necessary to establish claim, 363—Re provincial courts to review cases; channels through which cases are brought before Board, 363—Re Unit files and Headquarters files, 364—Headquarters' files not always complete; recommendations to be submitted by witness, 365—Some documents not available from Pension Board, 366—Investigator's file, 367, 368—Witness' thanks for assistance rendered by different bodies, 374