WHEREAS it is expedient that the inhabitants of the tract of land commơnly known as the Town of Granville and vicinity should be incorporated:

Therefore, Her Majesty, by and with the advice and conent of the Legislative Assembly of the Province of British Columbia, enacts as follows;-

I From and after the passing of this Act the inhabitants $f$ the tract of land as hereinafter described in the second secion hereof, and their successors shall be, and are hereby delared to be, a body politic and corporate in fact and in law, $y$ the name of "The City of Vancouver," and the said Cororation by the same name shall have perpetual succession, nd shall have power to sue and to be sued, implead and be imleaded, answer and be answered unto, in all courts and in all ctions, causes and suits at law or in equity whatsoever, and hall have a common seal, with power to alter and modify the ame at their will and pleasure, and shall be in law capable of eceiving by donation, acquiring, holding, and disposing of, nd conveying any property, real or movable, for the uses of he said Corporation, and in the management of the affairs nd for the purposes of said Corporation, of becoming parties auty contracts or agreements, of giving or accepting any otes, bills of exchange, bonds, obligations, or other instruents, or securities for payment of, or securing the payment f any sum of moneys borrowed or loaned, or executing or uaranteeing the execution of any duty, right or thing whatpever, and for the payment, or securing the payment of any oney borrowed, or of paying loans made, or ciebts owing to he said City of Vancouver, or of taking up bonds that may ecome due, or of making a loan or loans, and for any other gitimate and sufficient purpose whatsoever in coanection. ith the affairs of said Corporation; and for any of the puroses aforesaid, the said Corporation may grant or issue bonds pr the sum or sums of money therein to be specified under?

Incorporation of the City of Vancouver.

