

DATE.	PAGE.
May 16, 1868. — Sub-amendment and amendment ruled out of Order, because their adoption would involve the expenditure of a larger sum of money than that recommended by His Excellency's message.	337
April 21, 1870. — A sub-amendment not pertinent to the amendment to the main motion is out of Order.	343
May 10, 1870. — The House can concur into a Resolution reported for the Committee of Supply, even when by Supplementary Estimates a revote of the same sum is asked for the same object, for the reason that the House cannot know what is going on before the Committee of Supply until the Committee reports.	347
March 22 and 23, 1871. — The House having decided to add certain words to a motion, it is out of Order to propose merely to strike them out.	351
June 11, 1872. — Amendment ruled out of Order, because it would involve a tax upon the people which is not recommended by the Crown.	355
May 2, 1873. — An amendment to an amendment to the Motion for the House to go into Committee of Supply is not in Order.	357
February 26, 1875. — Any motion to change the destination of a grant of money recommended by the Crown is out of Order.	359