

Table, 201—Resumes the Chair in certain cases, 211, 213—Puts Question for leaving the Chair, on House going into Committee on a Bill, 357—Amendments that may be moved to such Question, 358

Counts and adjourns House—Speaker counts the House at three o'clock; if Twenty be present, he takes the Chair, 50 and page 25—If Twenty not present, Speaker adjourns House till next sitting day, 51—But if House meets before the ordinary time, does not adjourn the House until three o'clock, 52—When Twenty not present during a sitting after three o'clock, Speaker adjourns the House till the next sitting day, 54—When Chairman of Committee of the Whole House reports that Twenty members are not present, Speaker counts the House and adjourns, 55—When Twenty not present during an early sitting, business suspended until three o'clock, when Speaker again counts House, and adjourns, 56—The doors of the House open, whilst Speaker is counting, 57—On appointed adjournment, adjourns the House without any Question put, page 29—At six o'clock, leaves the Chair till half-past seven, page 29.

Debates—Members whilst speaking to address themselves to the Speaker, page 57—Speaker calls upon Members to speak when more than one rise, page 59—In case of irrelevance or repetition, may desire a Member to discontinue his speech, 152a—Not to allow any Debate on the presentation of a Petition, page 121.

Divisions—When Question is put, Speaker states whether in his opinion the "Ayes" or the "Noes" "have it", 127—If his opinion not acquiesced in, a Division ensues, 127—On a Division, puts the Question, and directs the votes to be taken and recorded, 136—If not demanded by five members, not entered, page 71—First directs "Ayes" and afterwards "Nays" to rise, page 71—The numbers are reported to Speaker, who declares them