

Chair, the Minutes of the preceding day shall be read by the Clerk, to the end that any mistake therein may be corrected.

4.

That the Warden shall preserve order and decorum, and shall decide questions of order, subject to an appeal to the Council.

5.

That every Councillor previous to his speaking, shall rise from his seat, and address himself to the Warden.

6.

That when a Councillor is speaking, no other Member of the Council shall hold discourse to interrupt him.

7.

That a Councillor called to order by the Warden shall sit down, unless permitted to explain, and when two or more are at once, the presiding (Speaker) of the Council, shall name the Member to speak.

That no Councillor shall move more than one question, without the leave of the Council, except the Speaker, who shall have a right to move more than one.

That upon any question in debate, the Speaker shall question those who vote against the motion, and who vote for it, shall be entered in the minutes, if any Councillor so move.

That no question shall be debated or put to the vote, unless it be in writing and signed by the proposer.