Roosevelt Sweeps Pennsylvania Taft "Machine" Is Utterly Routed Result Staggering To President

Altho Colonel Was Almost Without Organization in State His Forces Carried at Least 65 of the 76 Delegates and Control State Convention—Democrats
Lined Up Solidly Behind
Woodrow Wilson.

PHILADELPHIA, April 14.—(Can.
Press.)—Col. Roosevelt's sweeping victory in Pennsylvania at Saturday's primary election kept growing to-day as the returns continued to come in. Incomplete returns gave the former president 65 of the state's 76 delegates in the Republican national convention.
The Roosevelt supporters are claiming 67, and later returns may carry the figures to that total. Col. Roosevelt won 53 of the 44 district national delegates, and his followers elected enough delegates to the state convention to give them control of that body. The state convention will name 112 delegates at large.

Gov. Woodrow Wilson of New Jersey, who had no organized opposition, will have 74 of the 76 delegates from Pennsylvania in the Democratic national convention. In the eleventh congressional district the Democratic national delegates elected are favorable to Gov. Judson Harmon but they are not pledged.

Politicians look upon the triumph of Col. Roosevelt with astonishment. The supporters of the former president were without a state organization or without an organization in many of the 32 congressional districts.

Machine Loses Control

The regular Republican organization, headed by U. S. Senator Boies Penrose, which has withstood the fury of many a political storm, received a crushing defeat in the loss of control of the state convention. It is the first time in the present generation that it has lost control of that body.

The significance of the Roosevelt victory can be realized when it is remembered that the delegates in control of the state convention have the power to select the state chairman and, under the party rules, the delegation to the national convention elects the national committees. At present Senator Penrose holds both positions.

It was said by a prominent member of the state committee to-night that some of the Roosevelt delegates elected to the state convention are regular organization men, who, while voting for Roosevelt delegates, will stand by the state organization otherwise.

Some of the Leaders of the Republican Organization Refrained from Personally Entering the Primary as Candidates for District National Delegates, as it Had been Expected they would be selected as delegates at large. Among those understood to have been looked upon as the likely delegates were Senators Penrose and Oliver Fox, former Secre- tary of State Robert McFadyen, and State Senator James F. McNichol, the leader of the party organization in Philadel- phia.

Backed by Reform Element

The vote polled was light. In some districts it did not go much over 50 per cent. of the total vote cast at the last general election. Col. Roosevelt received his heaviest vote from the reform element of the state, represented by the Keystone party, which since it was organized about two years ago, has opposed the regular Republicans at every election and succeeded in electing a reform mayor in Philadelphia last year.

Another element of strength of the Roosevelt forces was the 170,000 idle anthracite miners in the northeastern counties of the state, where the former president ran strong.

In Philadelphia President Taft's adherents captured three of the six districts and split the delegation in another, giving the president seven delegates to Roosevelt's five. John Wanamaker and E. T. Stolesbury, were elected as Taft delegates in the second district. Edgar F. Smith, provost of the University of Pennsylvania, a Taft delegate, went down to defeat, but Wm.
D. Lewis, dean of the law department of the university was a Roosevelt winner.

In Allegheny County, which includes Pittsburgh, Col. Roosevelt captured all the eight delegates in the four districts. Among them is Wm. Flynn, who has fought the regular state organization for years.

In the congressional district where Gifford Pinchot has his home, the Roosevelt national delegate won, but Mr. Pinchot's home county, Pike, sent at large.

TAFT TAKING THE COUNT

The result of the Republican primaries in Pennsylvania is a Roosevelt victory no less sweeping than his recent popular triumph in Illinois. With a powerful machine of federal state officers at his command, President Taft was hopelessly beaten. The returns indicate that Colonel Roosevelt has secured at least 65 of the 76 delegates who will represent Pennsylvania at the national convention. The politicians are said to be dumfounded, as well they may be, by this uprising of the people.

The primary plan which entitles every member of the party to a voice in the selection of the official candidate puts an end to the domination of the party boss and reduces the ward heelers and professional politicians to the level of insignificance which they should occupy in public affairs.

The president regards himself, by virtue of his office, as the titular head of the Republican party. His humiliating defeats in the great Republican states, such as Illinois and Pennsylvania, must convince him that the party desires a new leader, and that his renomination has now become impossible. His sense of personal dignity, as well as his appreciation of the prestige which would surround his high office, will incline him to withdraw from the contest and to avoid the risk of encountering the further mortification attending similar reverses in other states.

With Mr. Taft eliminated, Colonel Roosevelt's nomination would be certain. His opponent, in all likelihood, would be William J.
Bryan, and a progressive president will be assured to the country whoever should prove the ultimate choice of the electors.

The surprising thing in the Illinois and Pennsylvania primaries is not the popularity of Roosevelt—the that is as surprising as the weakness of Taft is surprising—but the surprising thing is that the people are rising in their might against that moss-covered institution, the convention, the machine and the machine candidate. If the people of Canada had a say in the selection of their candidates, they they will, we imagine hereafter—there would be a very different class of men at Ottawa and at Queen's Park. Progressive men would have a show. As an illustration, not three of the eight Conservatives who sit in the Queen's Park for Toronto would ever be there if they had to go to a public primary that selected candidates.

One of the greatest instruments for the regeneration of the political life of the United States is the primary applied to candidates, and we see it now working in that direction in Illinois, Pennsylvania, etc.
It can't come too soon in Canada, either.

"Titanic" Strikes Iceberg "Virginian" Goes to Aid 1300 Passengers in Peril

White Star Liner, Which is Largest Vessel Afloat, Sends Wireless Message to Cape Race—"Virginian" Can Accommodate 900 of "Titanic's" Passengers if Necessary—C. M. Hays is Among Those on Board.

MONTREAL, April 14.—(Can. Press.) The Allan line office here to-night received a wireless message from the captain of the company's steamship Virginian stating that he had been in wireless communication with the White Star liner Titanic, which had been in collision with an iceberg and requested assistance. The Virginian's captain reported that he was on his way to the Titanic.

The Virginian sailed from Halifax this morning, and at the time the wireless message was sent, she is reckoned to have been about 400 miles from Cape Race. She has 500 passengers on board, but can accommodate the more of the Titanic's passengers.

As she is not far from Halifax the remainder will not have to endure any great amount of discomfort.

The message from the Virginian's captain was sent by wireless to Cape Race, and thence by cable to Halifax.

Turkey Asked To Fix Terms

So Says Despatch From Rome, But Constantinople Tells Different Story.

ROME, April 14.—(Can. Press.)—For a month past the powers have been trying to reach an agreement among themselves as to how Turkey could be best approached with reference to a settlement of the war with Italy. The powers had already asked Italy on what conditions she would be ready to make peace. The Italian conditions did not prove acceptable to Turkey, to which government they were communicated unofficially. It became evident to the powers that an official presentation of these conditions to Turkey would be a waste of time. They therefore decided to adopt a new course and ask Turkey on what conditions she would be ready to discuss a cessation of hostilities.

ing grounds. The passenger was Lawrence Sargent.

The crossing of the English Channel occupied 25 minutes, and the whole flight was made at an altitude of over 2000 feet.

Taft's Threat to Mexico

Government was notified today that the U. S. will hold Mexico and the Mexican people "responsible for all wanton or illegal acts committed or endangering American life or damaging American property or interests."

A similar notification has been sent to Gen. Orozco, chief of the insurrecto forces.

YOUNG GIRL SHOT HERSELF

Annie Taylor Was Examining a Revolver When it Went Off and She May Die.

While playing with a loaded revolver about 8 o'clock last night, Annie Taylor, aged 14 years, of 42 Simcoe-st., shot herself and now lies in St. Michael's Hospital in a dying condition.
The bullet entered her breast just above the heart, and her chances of recovery are very slight.

The girl lived with her sister, Mrs.
Arthur Osborne, who keeps a rooming house, at 42 Simcoe-st. The Osbornes were packing their household goods preparatory to having them removed to Mr. Osborne's pressing and cleaning shop at 161 York-st. to-day. While lifting some wearing apparel from a drawer, Annie Taylor found a revolver.
It is said that she pulled the trigger a couple of times, but there was no response. Then she began examining it, and in doing so pulled the trigger again. This time the trigger hit a loaded shell. The girl sank to the floor.

She was immediately removed in the police ambulance to the hospital. At an early hour this morning she was reported as being in a precarious condition.

A WIDER TERRAULAY-STREET.

As The World pointed out in its Sunday edition, the city council will likely be willing to favor a wider Terraulay-street if public opinion, as expressed by the board of trade and leading citizens is in favor of it. The council will hear their views anyway. So let the advocates of a wider street speak out.
The city council, under existing legislation, expropriate the whole of the property on both sides, as easily as a strip of ten feet; and resell it later on at a sum sufficient to retire any bonds issued for the purpose, and have a substantial surplus to put into a tube railway underneath!

That would be up-to-date city policy.
It's what they do in old-fashioned England and Scotland every week in the year.

GAVE GOLD WATCH FOR VALUABLE PROPERTY

Dr. Coleridge Traded His Timepiece 20 Years Ago for 1600 Feet on Soudan Ave., Which He Has Just Sold for $18,000, and Present Owner Can Get More.

Twenty years ago Dr. Coleridge of Ingersoll gave a gold watch, an inexpensive one at that, for 1600 feet of land on Soudan-avenue. The owner got tired carrying them and was quite willing to take $25 for the bunch, but as the doctor's watch was just what he wanted, the doctor got the lots.
Last week Dr. Coleridge sold the property for $11 a foot, or nearly $18-000. And the man who bought them, a local operator, has had a half dozen chances to sell them again at $15 a foot. The lots are on the south side of Soudan-avenue, and run right to Bayview, in fact, three of them front on Bayview-avenue. They are just opposite some of the best land in the Leaside deal.

FRENCH-CANADIANS MUST AS- SERT INDEPENDENCE.

KINGSTON, April 14.—(Special.)— "Is the use of French a right or a favor?" was the subject taken by Prof.
J. M. Lanoie of the Royal Military College in addressing three hundred French-Canadians of this city. French-Canadians were free men, he declared, and meant to be, and they would do as others intended to do, worship, speak and vote as they please.

NO MEDIATION IN TRIPOLI YET.

CONSTANTINOPLE, April 14.—
(Can. Press.)—The statement emanating from St. Petersburg that the powers had made proposals of mediation to Constantinople, with a view to bringing to an end the war between Turkey and Italy, is incorrect. Although all the ambassadors here have received the text of an identical note to be submitted to the Porte, none as yet has been submitted. It is stated that the ambassadors will take the projected steps separately on April 16.

JUNK THEFTS INVESTIGATED

Tons of Metal Stolen and Employes Involved Will Soon Be Brought to Justice.

Extensive thefts of old copper and brass have been going on from the city hydro-electric commission for some time back and employes have been discharged right and left. This was discovered about the time that Joseph Rosenthal was murdered, when he was lured to the transformer station at the foot of Strachan-avenue, on the pretext of securing a quantity of such scrap.

An investigation is now being proceeded to detect the employes who have been engaging in this form of "high grading," which is said to be being carried on in all concerns whose operation entails the constant passing of worn metals.

Tons of this stuff has been properly sold by the purchasing agent of the commission, and the money turned into the coffers of the commission, but other tons of it have been sold to the junk dealers, for which no money has been so turned in, and the sales have been made by those not entitled to sell.

Clothes.

Morris Rich of 95 Walton-st. is in custody charged with procuring. He was arrested yesterday on the corner of Agnes and Terrauly-sts. by Detectives Twigg and Taylor.

The information was laid by Catharine Greswold, a young woman whom Rich is said to have brought here from Montreal several weeks ago. It is alleged that she has been giving him about $35 a week. A few days ago Rich went to Chicago, went broke and communicated with the young woman and asked her to forward him some money. This she refused to do.

NEW ROYAL BOX FOR SPRING MEETING

Ontario Jockey Club Will Enlarge Accommodation for Duke and Duchess of Connaught and Party—New York Society at Opening—Will Not Sell Property Yet.

Secretary Fraser of the Ontario Jockey Club has given orders for the construction of a new royal box for the club house, for the accommodation of the Duke and Duchess of Connaught, Princess Patricia and the government house party from Ottawa, who are to be here for the whole of the spring meet, which opens on May 15, King's Plate day.

The new royal box will be on a larger and more imposing scale than the former viceregal one, which has already been removed.

Three or four New York millionaires known as expected at the opening, including President A. Belmont of the New York Club, President Wilson of the Saratoga Racing Association, and Thos. Clyde. Their horses will be well represented in the open stake events.
New York society, which came within the charmed circle during the visit of the governor-general to New York, will also be represented.

Rumors that Woodbine Park would be sub-divided for building lots this season have been set at rest. According to reliable information the O.J.C. authorities regard the present prices for land as close in as the Woodbine as comparatively insignificant in view of the rapid development and building up of the vicinity. They are confident of a substantial enhancement of present values.

CHORUS OF PRAISE FOR HOME RULE.

LONDON, April 14.—(Can. Press.)— The government whip to-night issued a long list of telegrams which John Robinson, leader of the Nationalist party, has received from the colonies and the United States, approving the home rule bill. They include messages from the premiers of South Africa, the Australian and Canadian colonial ministers, several former ministers, Cardinal Gibbons, Sir Thomas Shaftesbury, and a host of American governors, judges, prelates, mayors and public leaders.

JOHN GOES ON THE JOB.

John, Toronto:
"I'm off on a trip. Take charge o' the 'Globe' when I'm away. Hand up my principles as I headed up the government in the 'Globe' at Ontario. You shall have a father in journalism."

John, Down South:
Toronto: Just got back home, and will take charge of The Globe while you are away for a rest after your heroic labors in the senate at Ottawa after your heroic labors in the senate at Ottawa backing Borden's bills. I will see that The Globe swells the tubes, first standard and holds Robert John, and will use its full capacity to the O.K. rubber stamp with your name attached that you left me. I'll first give Jim Whi-ney a hand-out in The Globe for his blingling conduct. I will also blame a lot of it on Billy Maclean. He is a watch dog that I always hold responsible for anything that happens in the next township! I will do my best for Little York and the Landmarks, of which I consider you the most eminent specimen. You will have to stand the charge of $25 per at any good American hotel in the south. But never mind—gather the rewards while you may. I will give the land baron a what in The Globe. The subdivision of farms to relieve city congestion means a bigger Toronto and no self-respecting landmark will ever stand for that. I regard any increase in the circulation of The Tely as a consolidation of my dearest conviction. I do not want any new subscribers or any new adventures. They are evidence of Toronto's growth, and sooner than admit that I refuse both! Go it, old man, when you've got the chance.
John.
