WEDNESDAY MORNING, MAY 15, 1912

THE ROOSEVELT SWEEP IS ON

Everything now indicates that Theodore Roosevelt will be the next president of the United States with a sweeping rush. It is all very well for the New York papers, which are about as archaic as they can be, to have refused to see that Roosevelt could come back; and it is still worse for useless Mr. Taft when he has lost the confidence of the people to think he can sidetrack the colonel by calling him names; and it is equally hopeless for the Democratic party to think that it can come back in power when it did not make good when it had the opportunity. The Democrats made the mistake of their lives when they undertook to rubberstamp Mr. Taft's reciprocity deal with Canada. They should have spent that session, half the year, in tariff reform and given all there was in reciprocity without any deal with Canada given it as a manifestation of their tariff reform principles.
Taft hurt them worse than he hurt anybody else excepting the Liberal party in this country. When you analyze Mr. Taft's career you find that he has not only upset his own appointment but everybody else's as well.
He upset the Liberals in this country; he upset the old-time Republican machine; he didn't do the Democrats any good, and it is likely that the big interests who have taken him up will find that he was a bad investment. Mr. Taft has got the by-ones.

Outside of Bryan, no Democrat seems to be shaping up of any size to meet Roosevelt's rush, and the indications simply are that Roosevelt is a bigger man than ever he was and stronger in the minds of the people and that he had a fixed determination to do something to break the fetters which the outgoing constitution of the United States has imposed on that country.

Quit listening to people who say Roosevelt cannot be elected for a third term and get it into your head that he will be elected for a third term by an immense majority.

RECIPROCITY A DEAD ISSUE

In his speech at Dexter City, Ohio, on the opening day of his quest after the electoral vote at the state Republican primaries, President Taft made an apologetic reference to his effort to bring reciprocity with Canada. He did this partly to expose Colonel Roosevelt's charge of front and partly because the audience he was then addressing consisted of farmers understood to be against him on that proposal. The president affirmed that he favored reciprocity because he believed it to be for the good of the farmers and every other class, but he did not repeat or endorse his now celebrated argument that reciprocity would make Canada an "adjunct" of the United States.

He did declare, however, that it was a dead issue and the natural inference is that he is certain it will not be revived in the United States. This pronouncement may be a cold douche for those of its Canadian mourners who profess to think it may be galvanized into life. President Taft is probably convinced by this time that his energies would have been more profitably occupied had they been directed towards securing that reduction in the United States tariff which he and the Republican party pledged themselves to carry into effect during the campaign preceding his election. Reciprocity, indeed, owned its inception in part to the idea that it would sidetrack tariff revision.

BRITISH FARMERS CO-OPERAT- ING

Notwithstanding the strong attack made upon the co-operative movement in the United Kingdom by individuals it continues to expand. The success attending co-operation in Denmark and the heavier competition of Danish agricultural and other products thus engendered, has compelled British farmers to adopt the system for the purpose of eliminating the middleman and securing that the benefit of high prices shall accrue directly to the members. In the end of last March there was opened at Elmawell, Suffolk, the first farmers' co-operative bacon curing factory, an enterprise which may be the first step towards a revolution in British agricultural methods and the beginning of a great development. As described in a recent report of the Dominion Department of Trade and Commerce, the building is 240 feet long, stands upon six acres and is considered the finest model bacon factory in the British Empire. Its capacity is equal to the requirements necessary for the slaughtering and curing of from 750 to 1000 hogs per week, and the United States methods have been improved by the substitution of a one-floor instead of a multi-floor system, thus eliminating unnecessary hauling and minimizing space.

This new association, known as "The St. Edmundsbury Co-operative Bacon Factory," started with a membership of 200, but this number, it is confidently anticipated, will soon be considerably increased. No annual fee is charged, but each farmer undertakes to supply a specified number of swine per annum, the society paying the full market price estimated on the basis of the prices ruling in the four principal markets of the country. In addition, each farmer will receive a bonus according to the grade of his hogs, a provision inserted to encourage good breeding. Farmers are further given a personal interest in the association by the allotment of 25 shares according to the number of hogs supplied but not exceeding 200 shares in all.

BRITISH TARIFF TENTATIVES

Even the most ardent believer in free trade will concede that a tariff for revenue purposes is justifiable and indeed, as in Canada, may be imperative. Of course, a tariff of any kind, without a countervailing impact on home products, affords a measure of protection for home industries, just as freight and transportation charges involve when added to the original cost of the goods imported. Observers who are in a position to become acquainted with the inside trend of British politics, have been impressed with the conviction that a current of public opinion has started in Great Britain which may ere long lead to united action on the part of both free traders and tariff reformers.
A compromise along this line would commend itself to the large sections of the British people who recognize the benefit accorded to highly protected nations accruing from the present system of free imports, but who are not prepared to support a home tariff for straight protection purposes. The abounding prosperity of recent years, and serious industrial disturbances, cannot always continue and with the increase of unemployment and curtailment of profit, the demand for other sources of revenue will rapidly make itself heard. In a properly adjusted tariff, a means may be found to stimulate home production, sustain the revenue required by the enlarging expenditures and promote the endeavor after a preferential trade system within the empire.

WESTERN INVESTMENTS

Farm lands in Alberta and Saskatchewan are proving attractive to the eastern investor, who looks for safety and reasonable returns. The rush of emigration from Eastern Canada, United States and Europe into these two provinces is causing farm land values to appreciate rapidly.

As an evidence of the widespread interest in these investments in Ontario, a large party comprising a number of senior members of the House of Commons, local legislators and prominent business and professional men from various parts of Ontario, left for Ver-million, Alberta, this morning, as guests of Neely Ltd., investment bankers, Temple Building, this city, who have large holdings of selected lands in that district. Not only will these gentlemen select lands for themselves, but they are representing numerous other capitalists in the east, and it is expected when the party returns, a great many thousands of acres will have changed hands.

In the party are the following: Hon.
Senator Ratz, of New Hamburg; Hon.
Senator Talbot, Ottawa; J. A. Sex-smith, M.P., Peterboro; W. E. Smythe, East Algonia; M. B. Tudhope of the Tudhope Carriage Co., Orillia; Col. W.
L. E. White, Kingston; Capt. Tom Wallace, M.P., Woodbridge; Dr. McLean, ex-M.P., Woodbridge; J. A. Cameron, reeve of Vaughan; Alex. McMurtry, reeve of King; Dr. D. B. Neely, M.P., Ottawa; John Nigh, reeve of Markham; F. W. Grant, K.C., Midland; J.
B. Hall, manager of the Dominion Insurance Co., Toronto; Dr. W. A. Keeneland; Udny Richardson, M.L.A., Elora; Walter Ferguson, M.P.; P.
McD. Little, Bank of Montreal, Toronto; J. Thompson, M.L.A., Peterboro; E. B. Broley, Manufacturers Life Assurance Co., Toronto; Dr. McGregor, Elora; Dr. J. J. Burns, Toronto; Mr.
Underwood of the Harris Abattoir, Toronto.

The party left yesterday morning at 8 o'clock in a special Pullman on the G.
T.R. and sailed on the "Huron" yesterday afternoon for Port Arthur. On arriving there, they will be entertained by the board of trade. Special Pullmans will be taken thru to Winnipeg and on to Vermilion. Two days will be spent in viewing the lands and a pleasure trip will be given to Edmonton, Calgary, Saskatoon and Regina. At all points, preparations have been made by boards of trade and other civic bodies for their entertainment. The party is in charge of Mr. T. A. Neely and Mr. E. R. Heyland.

SHOULD BUILD FOR THE FUTURE

City Government Should Look Ahead Five, Ten, Even Fifty Years, Declares Premier at Civic Luncheon.

An eloquent plea for the larger vision in dealing with the problems of Toronto characterized the speech of the prime minister at the civic luncheon at the King Edward Hotel yesterday afternoon. Mayor Geary, members of the city council, a number of civic officials and many prominent citizens were present. Mr. Borden said on the right of his worship the mayor, and among other distinguished guests at the head table were: Hon. W. D. T.
White, minister of finance; Hon. J. D.
Riddell, minister of education; Hon. J. S.
Duff, provincial minister of agriculture; Hon. W. H. Hearst, minister of lands and mines; Hon. J. J. Hanna, provincial secretary; Hon. E. J. Campbell, Mr. McCann, Rev. J. A. Macdonald, Senators Jaffray, Campbell and Kerr and local members of the legislature.
Mayor Geary introduced the prime minister in a brief speech, in which he said that welcome was extended not only to Mr. Borden personally but to him as prime minister of Canada and the worthy successor of a long line of illustrious statesmen.

Enthusiastically Received

"I must protest," he said, "against ever being considered a stranger in Toronto. I have visited here many times and have always been received with appreciative treatment from those who agreed and from those who disagreed with me in politics, even when I was in opposition and had many who honored me as many as leading a forlorn hope. (Laughter.) I carried away from every visit here the kindest recollections."

After referring to the fact that this was his first civic welcome, Mr. Borden said that he was becoming more and more convinced that the city of Toronto was a city of the future, and that
