reeves Goulding, Sylvester, Bull and Miller. The first business of the Council was the consideration of a communication from Messrs. Taylor Bros., with reference to lots on Coxwell-avenue, sold in error for arrears of taxes. The writers wished the lots to be at once conveyed to them, and it the contention raised is found correct by the Assessment Commissioner and Solicitor, the same will take place without delay.

A question of school taxes having been raiseu some time ago by Mr. F. Baby of Swansea, the matter was submitted for the decision of the Hon. G. W. Ross, Minister of Education. The decision was now received, and stated that, as Mr. Baby's taxes for the years 1891-4 had been applied for Public instead of Separate School purposes, a refund should now be made, and the necessary amount levied on the school section this year to cover the dediciency. William Heth.ngton of Norway wrote asking for payment for time lost by isolation under directions from the M.H.O. The Council could not see the same way as the applicant, and no payment will be made.

DON MILLS-ROAD,

Messrs. George Smith and D. Duncan

Tilley, a German maid......May Milloy
The play is a farce-comedy, with an overplus of the farce element, and while there was great laughter at the ridiculousness of some of the situations, there is not the depth of refined humor which is necessary to make the play rank in the first class. Mr. Lytell was warmly greeted by his many old friends in the house, and Mr. Allen Davenport did well as the reprobate son. Mr. George Mack, as the "friend from India," had the most trying work, and beyond a little exaggeration gave a creditable performance. The play runs all week, with Wednesday and Saturday matinees.

"THE BELLS OF SHANDON."

James W. Reagan, who made his first appearance before a Toronto audience at the Toronto Opera House last night, is entitled to rank among the best singing comedians. He has a sweet tenor voice, and his songs are new. He soon became a prime favorite with the audience. His manner is attractive and pleasing and he personates the happy-go-lucky Irish boy to perfection.

"The Bells of Shandon," the four-act comedy-drama, in which Mr. Reegan is starring, is better than the usual Irish drama. Many of the old-time characters have been eliminated. The story told is interesting and the many exciting scenes and incidents are reached, without abusing the privileges of a playwright.

The company, taken all through, is better than the average. John H. Smiley makes an excellent villain. John S. Sanagan as an Irish-American speculator is clever, and the Misses Emily Stowe. Carrie Hose and Lottle Hyde add a great deal to the success of the production. Bargain matinees will be given to-day, Thursday, and Saturday. "THE BELLS OF SHANDON.

ALBANI'S TOUR.

The citles of the Northwest appear to be vieing with each other in the enthusiasm of their receptions to Albani, the greatest of Canadian prima donnas. After singing in the Winnipeg Drill Hall to the largest audience ever gathered at a concert in Canada, Albani and her company proceeded to Calgary, where their visit was made the occasion of a gala week and an additional concert was given on two days' notice, to accommodate the throngs. It may be expected that the great diva on her return to Toronto on Monday, Feb. 22, will be greeted with a record-breaking house at Massey Music Hall. Owing to extended tours planned for South Africa, Australia and India, which Albani has not yet visited, this may be her last appearance in Toronto. A ballade concert at popular prices has been selected to mark the occasion, as it is the diva's own wish that her fellow-countrymen and women should not be debarred from hearing her by reason of the high prices. The rush for seats at the cheap prices will undoubtedly be great, and the management of Massey Hall have decided to open an advance list on Thursday morning next at the Hall box office at 9 o'clock. Seats will be allotted strictly in order of subscription, and only to the number mentioned in the list. The concert becomes a financial possibility on account of the large canacity of Massey Hall. The selection of nooular ballads for the program will add stall further to the enthusiasm which the event will arouse.

London, Feb. 1.—Sims Reeves, the cele-brated English tenor singer, has been de-clared a bankrupt, and a receiving order has been issued against his property. AT THE BIJOU.

AT THE BIJOU.

The Bijou has one of the best bills of the season this week. Hines and Remington in their sketch of Bowery life, are easily the feature. Carter, the magician, does an interesting act. His illusion, "The Phantom Bride," is well worth seeing. Abacco is a clever acrobat, and Hamilton and Herndon do an amusing sketch.

The Peak Sisters, under the direction of iss Christabel McGaw, gave a full-of-fun meert at the Home for Incurables last rening. The sisters were Misses Agnes, eGaw. Blanche Boyd, Bessie Boyd, Nandomson, M. Weldon, Edith Morrison, M. Innett, E. Winnett, Kate Cowan, L. aart and Mrs. Charles Frost. They were sisted by the following brotners: Two oyds, two Stovels, Prof. Macley and Mr. prophy.

At the close of their amusing program, which consisted of humorous songs, recitations and speeches, one of the patients arose and heartily thanked the performers for their entertainment, which he designated as a "wrinkle-mover," on leaving the Home all who took part, enjoyed a jolly sleigh ride, after which they were given a supper at the Queen's Hotel by Mrs. McGaw.

Bauer, for the past four months, has been an agent of the Metropolitan Life Insurance Company. He kept a small personal account with the Bank of Hamilton. On Monday, Jan. 25, he announced his intention or closing his account there, and drew out the few dollars he had on deposit. He made out

NORWAY SCHOOL.

Mr. H. Neild of Norway attended the Council, having several requests to ask them. The first was that no payment be made to the school section at Norway pending arrangements for the treasurer to be placed under bonds. This was acquiesced in by the Council. Mr. Nield also asked permission to attend to the lamps at Norway. This also received approval, but a request for a grant to the new fire brigade in that section was refused, Deputy keeve Miller remarking that the township's experience in the fire brigade business had been anything but satisfactory, and instanced Wychwood Park to support his opinion.

A GRACEFUL SCENE.

The prime object of the gathering had thus, with music's aid, been reached. Dr. Dwyer called on His Grace the Archbishop to award the diplomas, and on Mrs. Hugh Ryan to distribute the medals awarded to those successful in the graduating class. The latter were arrayed in their spotiess robes—snow-white aprons, blue and white striped gowns, broad white collars and caps. From pink sash depended bunches of sweet violets and the effect was heightened by bouquets of choice flowers handed cach of them by little Louisa McPherson.

THE NURSES' VALEDICTORY. Amidst applause Miss Higgins, on the conclusion of the three-fold presentation, stepped forward and, in a clear resonant voice, in the name of the class, returned thanks to all who had taken part in the ceremony of that evening, and to the medical superintendent, the staff, the visiting physicians, the Mother Superior and the Sisters of St. Joseph, to the head nurse, Miss Doyle. Gratitude and deserved praise were the theme of the address, which was at once eloquent and pertinent. The references to the munificence of Mr. Hugh Ryan were specially applanded.

Under general business, the Reeve brought to the notice of the Council the fact that a portion of the township in the neighborhood of Swansea was applying for a separation as a new township. The Reeve said that the first intimation he had had of the proposition was the advertisement in The World, and he would like the Council to decide whether they intended to offer any opposition to the separation.

F. Baby, who was present, and was one of the prime movers in the application to Parliament, said the proposal had been talked of for the past five years. The proposal now was to amalgamate a portion of York and Etobicoke Townships, and form a new township. He thought this would be beneficial to this particular territory, as they could collect and expend their own taxes where they were needed. He had been a resident of the Swansen district for a years, and it had been sadly neglected, very little money having been spent for improvements. He thought the Council should attend the meetings of the council tee who had the division in nand, and they could then form an idea of what was intended to be done. The first meeting will be held at Lambton on Feb. 11 next, and the Council will likely take advantage of the occasion and be present.

Mr. Pegg swore the summons was regularly served, but the Division Court clerk does not recollect the circumstance. The case of C. Russell Fitch of Stouff-ville Tribune was in the Assize list yesterday. The action was not tried and it was reported to have been settled on the terms of an apology by the defendant, and alfabursements. The solicitors for Mr. Malloy deny they have assented to any such settlement and say the case will be mentioned in court to-day.

North Toronto.

The municipalities of North Toronto and Scarboro, having been compelled to assume the repair of county roads after removal of the tolls, think that the County of York should shoulder half the cost of the maintenance of the said roads. North Toronto wants $800 and Scarboro $1900 annually from the county. Accordingly a deputation presented the facts to the Attorn that would give effect to their requirements and meets with favor in official circles. There is a clear stretch clined to grant relief under circumstances such as the deputation had represented, but could not ask the Government to force a matter brought up in a private bill. It is probable that a measure will be introduced to cover all such cases. The deputation was introduced by John Richardson, M.L.A., and consisted of County Councillors Baird and Chester, Reeve Lyman Kennedy, Deputy Reeves Robert Cowan, Highland Creek; Thompson Jackson, Scarboro; Councillors Andrew Young, Scarboro; David Brown, Brown's Corners; William Treadway, Highland Creek; Levi E.
