Death of Worcester's No. 5.

Worcester, July 20.—The Worcester High School crew, which was defeated in the senior eight-oared race at the National Regatta at Philadelphia last week, arrived home Tuesday morning, several of its members suffering from training and over-exertion.

James Haradon, who rowed No. 5 in the crew, was hardly able to reach home, and an examination by surgeons showed he was suffering from appendicitis. An operation was performed Wednesday afternoon and he died early this morning.

Johnson, who rowed No. 7, has been confined to the house by illness since his arrival, and Daly, at No. 6, is suffering from a strained back. Perry, at No. 3, required the attention of a doctor on the way home, but is now better.

It is said that Haradon's appendicitis was caused by an injury caused by jumping over a railway gate after the race, but there is a general belief here that is excessive strain of the race. Haradon was 17 years old, a member of the class of 1900 of the High School. He was the only child of his father, who is an engineer in the Worcester Fire Department.

ARGONAUTS' PRELIMINARIES.

Fast Time Made by Club Fours in the Midsummer Regatta.

The three preliminary heats of the Argonaut Rowing Club's annual midsummer regatta were rowed off yesterday over the usual course under favorable circumstances. In each of the heats there were three crews started. The starts were all fair and the times good, notwithstanding the brisk northwest wind that was blowing.

In the second heat, Chadwick's crew, that finished second, were disqualified for not turning their buoy, and Thompson's quartet were given the place. In the first heat, Playfair (bow) steered a poor race, and ran into a yacht on the way home, throwing them out of a good chance for second place. The best two crews in each heat are entitled to row in the semi-finals and finals to-day at 3 o'clock. The results:

First heat—C. E. Howarth (stroke), Travers, Spragge, Howlett, first; Hoskins stroke, Williams, Hunter, Mills, second. Time 4.57.

Second heat—Armstrong stroke, Jordan Langley, Stevenson, first; Thompson stroke, Watt Fellowes, Angus, second. Time 4.58.

Third heat—Monson stroke, Kingsford, Fisher, Ellerton, first; Jordan stroke, Beckett, Beardmore, Bunnell, second. Time 4.57.

Brampton then had 11 runs to make to win, which they did at the loss of five wickets, Thaunburn and Treadgold did good bowling for Brampton, while Collins and Creighton did the bowling for the Woodbine.

Prejudice.

Smokers who are under the impression that they cannot get a good cigar for 5c should try our famous Collegian, and be convinced that they are superior to many so-called 10c brands. J. A. Thompson, 73 Yonge-street, N.E. corner King and Yonge. 2

BARNIE'S WINNING PONIES.

Home Runs Take the Second of the Series From Toronto

And the Islanders Go Back to Fourth Place in the Record Tale, Buffalo Going Up Second by Virtue of a Victory Over Syracuse—Two Games at the Island To-Day.

Much of the ground gained in the recent visits of Montreal and Providence has been lost by the unexpected defeats of the past two days. But it will all be forgiven should the double-header be captured this afternoon. The Ponies likely played past their form, though the outfield showed the best work of the year, and it remains to be seen if they can keep it up. Catcher Nichols puts lots of ginger in the game. Toronto was the only Canadian to lose yesterday, and Buffalo went up to second place by beating Syracuse. Here is the record to date:

	Won.	Lost.	Pct.
Montreal	43	33	.566
Buffalo	45	40	.529
Wilkes-Barre	37	34	.521
Toronto	42	39	.518
Syracuse	40	39	.506
Ottawa	37	42	.468
Springfield	34	39	.465
Providence	32	44	.421

Games to-day: Springfield at Toronto (2), Providence at Montreal, Wilkes-Barre at Ottawa, Syracuse at Buffalo.

Beaten by Big Bunched Hits.

Nichols, Dolan, Green and Massey won yesterday's game at the Island for Springfield, and they did it with their little sticks. They made all the Ponies' hits—10, for a total of 22. Green's two over the fence were good for five runs, while Dolan sent in one ahead of him. Toronto hit the ball hard enough, but could not bunch their short ones. Pappalau had plenty of speed, that the Torontos generally hit in the air, no less than 16 flies going to the outfield. A high wind blew back towards the plate and kept the ball up for the fielders.

Toronto showed a disposition to jump on Pappalau at the start. Three clean singles and as many long flies to the outfield were only good for one run. Grey, Casey and Beaumont did the hitting. Casey stole third, to be left there. The Ponies were more vicious. They only made three hits, but Nichols' was a double and Green's over the fence. Dolan and Bannon sent out flies to Hanniyan. Casey made a wild throw and Taylor a fumble, either of which cut out would have saved a run. Springfield kept up the cannonade in the next. Nichols' single being followed by Dolan's home run. Massey's out was a line fly to Freeman.

Toronto took one of them back in the third on Grey's two-base hit and a couple of outs.

The Ponies hit around in the sixth, scoring three runs after Gleason and Pappalau went out, third to first. Nichols walked. Dolan hit a high curve towards left field. Hannivan sprinted in, but the ball dropped safe at Gatins' feet. Green hit one over the fence, his second of the game, and three runs were in. Massey doubled, Bannon walked, and Taylor's error filled the bases. Reilly popped up an easy fly to second.

Hannivan's two-base hit and Massey's muff of Casey's high fly gave Toronto one in the seventh. That was the last run, though the Islanders made another rally in the ninth. Hannivan, Casey and Beaumont hit safely after two were out. Freeman might have raised the score four, but he sent up a weak fly for the pitcher. Score:
