CANADIAN FOREST TREES

The Subject of an Address Before

the Canadian Institute Sat-

Mr. Walker gave a brief account of the extent of the burnt acres of forest land in Canada, the resulting evils being more than the mere loss of timber. As an instance of this a comparison was made between the present climatic conditions and decreasing population of Southern Europe and Eastern Asia, with those of twenty centuries ago. This great change is largely due to the clearing away of the forests, and it was thus that Ontario had already suffered to extent.

Does the G. T. R. Object?

An unusally well attended meeting of the Canadian Institute was that of Saturday night, when Mr. E. M. walker delivered an address on "Canadian Forest Trees," Mr. B. E. Walker, president, in the chair.

Mr. B. E. Walker, president, in the chair.

Mr. Walker gave a brief account of the certent of the burnt acres of forest land in the mere loss of timber. As an instance the present climatic conditions and decreasing population of Southern Europe and Eastern Asia, with those of twenty certains ago. This great change is largely one to the clearing away of the forests, and it was thus that Ontario had already suffered to extent. The word of the woods is quite different, the soil of the clearings being made wetter than it originally was by the coming in of the sea air.

The distribution of the various forest belts in Canada was given with brief descriptions of the appearance, habits and geographical range of the various trees, Most of the forests of Canada was given with brief descriptions of the appearance, habits and geographical range of the various trees. Most of the forests of Canada are included in an immense belt called the sub-Arctie forest belt. The remainder were grouped into those of the Maritime Provinces, Quebec, Ontario, the Rocky and Selicik Mountains and the Pacific coast.

Mr. George Bertram, M.P., and Mr. James Bain, ir., spoke afterwards on the address, Mr. Bertram, who is well up in such matters, disagreeing with one or two statements, it being his experience that white pine did grow on burnt lands, about four years after the fire.

The address was illustrated by about 30 good lancern vlews.

A paper, the "Decipherment of Hierony was given in brief by Rev. John Campbeil, The Rond Rev. John Campbeil, Was given in brief by Rev. John Campbeil, plated by the Board of Control.

Does the G. T. R. Object?

But a strong opposition to the scheme is being—much further strengthened by the hope of track depression. This colossal scheme involves probably half a million of dollars' expenditure, but it would free Parkdalians from dangerous railway crossings, would render safe and secure the present entrance to High Park and on the part of the railway would save cost of haulage. It is this new proposition which has dampened somewhat the ardor of even Ward Six aldermen, notably Controller Lynd, towards the High Park entrance. At first it was given out that the railways had entered into the spirit of the thing as much as the city. But now City Engineer Rust returns from an interview with Mr. Hobson of the G.T.R., at Montreal, with the impression that the railroad will not be a consenting party. The depression would cost the company, they say, in the neighborhood of $400,000. Another grade of equal altitude between here and Hamilton, it is also claimed, would have to be depressed before the engines could pull heavier trains. This fact, says the Assessment Commissioner, the great High Park entrance enthusiast, would render the scheme of no value to the railway and, therefore, put it hors de combat.

However, further and more authoritative information will perhaps come out of today's Council and out of Manager Hays, forest belt. The remainder were grouped into those of the Maritime Provinces, Quebec, Ontario, the Hocky and Selkirk Maritime House of the Control of the Hocky and Selkirk Maritime House of the Control of the Control of the House of the Control of the House of the Control of the House of th ticable the Board of Works' suggestion that they run wires in outlying districts underground. He says that while they can erect poles without consent of the city, they must get consent to put up sufficiently high ones to sur-top shade trees. The delay in giving this consent, he claims, is causing inconvenience to many applicants for services on St. George-street, Admiral-road, etc., and is depriving the company of revenue in proportion. He adds by way of encouragement that the company contemplates installing much underground conduit plant in central districts this summer.
